Dist. 34 to go for 54¢ tax rate hike on ballot

by GLORIA DAVIS

At the meeting on Tuesday of the Dist. 34 Antioch Grade School Board of Education, the board decided to go along with Supt. Don Skidmore's recommendation that a tax rate increase of 54 cents be put as a referendum on the April ballot.

Skidmore told the board, "Since 1883-84 the school district has been running budget deficits which have been averaging $160,000 annually. The deficits continue to accelerate. For 1988-89 the projected deficit is $297,000. Our cash reserves are gone and we are living on borrowed money. The lack of cash reserves has also compounded our problem as interest income has fallen off dramatically."

The grade school district has not had a tax rate raise since 1974 when the rate went from 92 cents to $1.56.

Skidmore suggested alternatives to the tax rate referendum that included, "do nothing, economize where we can- otherwise borrow; economize by cutting the heart out of the school programs or a combination of either alternative."

Also on the board's agenda was board reorganization.

Skidmore asked the board to salary the board secretary. The salary is usually just enough to cover time and expenses (such as postage, etc.) The board approved Skidmore's request.

The board also raised the treasurer's salary from the current $1,800 to $2,000, effective July 1, 1989 and reappointed Jan Pfar the present treasurer to that position.

The board also approved continuing to use the First National Bank of Antioch, the State Bank of Antioch and the Bank of Waukegan as its depositories.

Appointed to the board's standing committees were: Kathy Oddsen, SEDOL Governing Board; Roy Pomrening, Oddsen and Fred Eichhorn, finance; Phyllis Zora, Oddsen Eichhorn, policy; Bruce Jablonski, Gail Heath and Pomrening, negotiations and Heath, Zora and Jablonski to the building committee.

Skidmore told the board that he was appointed to the Lake-McHenry Regional Program Board. He drew a three year term and was elected board president.

Wilton: Referendum in bag

by GLORIA DAVIS

Antioch Trustee Bob Wilton met with his committee this week for an update on the circulation of petitions calling for a referendum on the spring ballot establishing a police and fire commission in Antioch.

One of the main purposes of the establishment of the commission is to keep politics out of both departments.

Such a commission will be mandated by state law in 1990-91, after the 1990 census puts Antioch's population over the 5,000 mark as expected.

According to Wilton, "We already have more than the 192 signatures needed to put the referendum on the ballot; but we are continuing to get people to sign, hoping to end up with at least 400 signatures."

Name puts 12 on old committee

At the last regular meeting of the Antioch Village Board, Mayor Ray Toft, with approval from the members of the Antioch Village Board, appointed residents to the committee that was "revived" when the Traco, Inc. factory controversy began.

On the commission are Dr. Lynn Anderson, Hank Glenn, Ed Kozirowski, Al Little, Todd Mapletorp, Wayne Parthun, Marilyn Shineflug, Bill Seeman, Charles Wertz, Trustee Robert Wilton, Mike Ruxton and Martha Suchsland.

Planners turn thumbs down on rezoning plan

With all the new annexations and new subdivisions popping up in and around the Village of Antioch, Justine Lubkeman is one resident who intends to "make our boards responsible to us for what's going on."

At the planning meeting last week concerning Carl Zimmerman's request to rezone his 10-and-one-half acres from R-1 to R-2 she was the only resident in the audience.

The Zimmerman property is located just south of St. Steven's Church.

Lubkeman, told the planners that she objected to the rezoning on the grounds that Zimmerman was not showing just cause for the rezoning.

She added, "He has 34 lots in the subdivision's plan and some of those lots are just not big enough for R-1 zoning."

She suggested that Zimmerman replat the subdivision to the proper 29 R-1 zone lots as is properly called for by the size of the acreage.

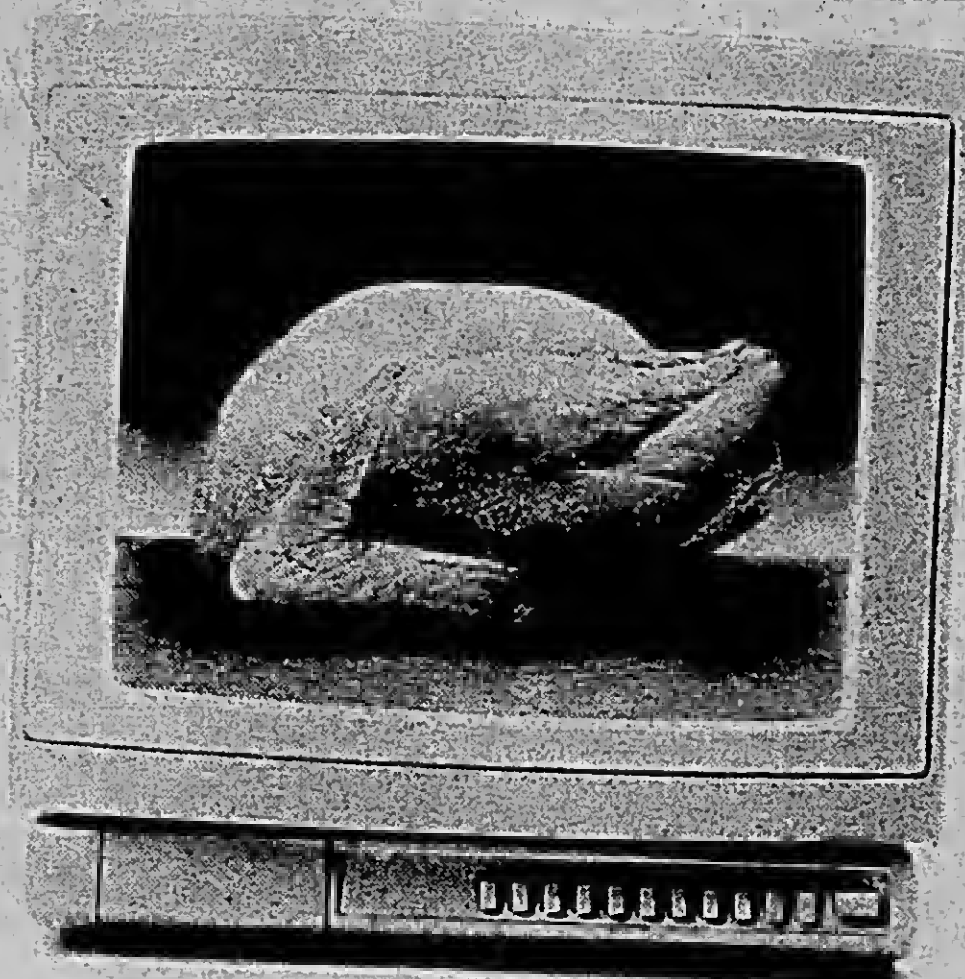

The planners agreed with her and denied Zimmerman's request for the rezoning.

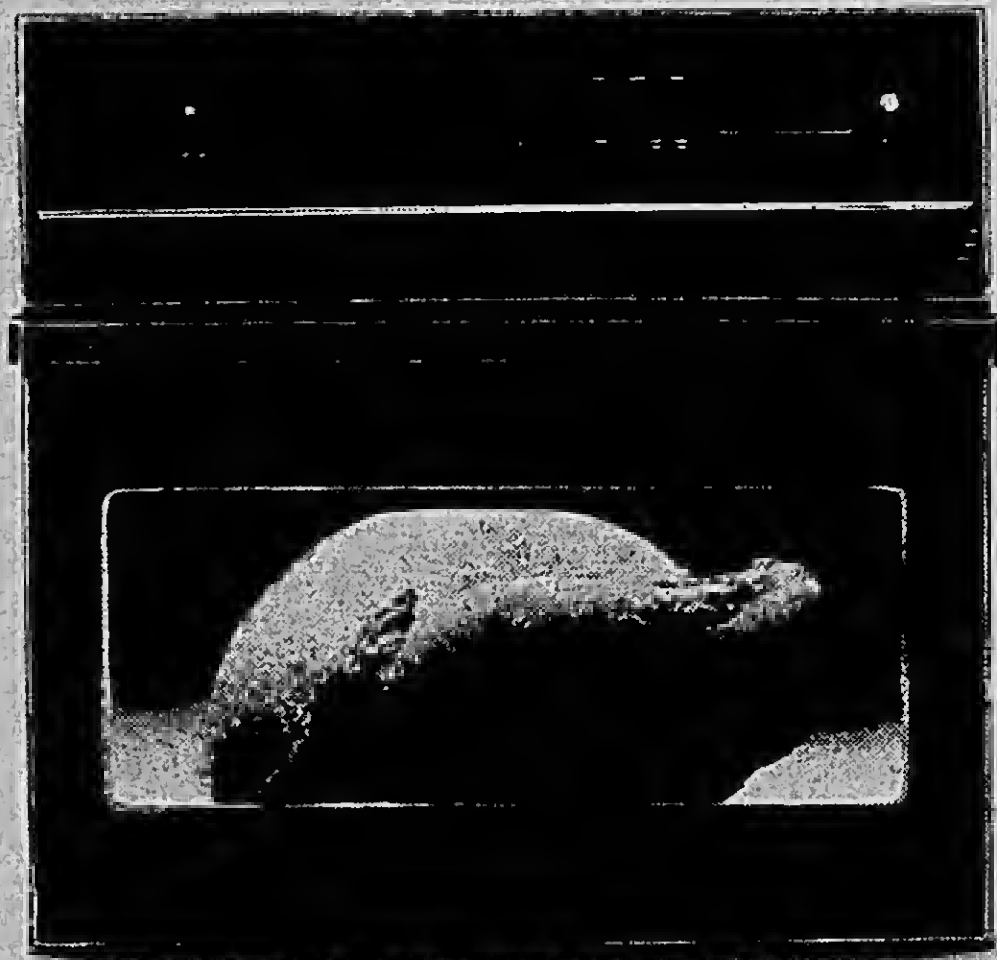

"I've lived here since I was 13 years old and I'll probably live here until I die, that's why I'm interested in what's happening with all the growth that's going on, much of it with too heavy a density," said Lubkeman.

Police nab 2 in double drug bust

The Antioch Police Dept., in cooperation with MEGS (Metropolitan Enforcement Group), arrested two men on drug charges last week, confiscating two-and-one-half ounces of cocaine with a street value up to $6,000.

The first man arrested was Brian Michalowicz, 19, address given as Joanna Courts Apartments.

An undercover agent made a controlled buy from Michalowicz in the parking lot at the Walgreen's mall on Main St., at 3:30 p.m. on Dec. 7.

MEGS also confiscated Michalowicz's 1979 Corvette because it was used in a drug delivery.

At 6:30 p.m., that same day, MEGS and the Antioch Police arrested Kenneth Halvorsen, 27, McHenry, who was allegedly delivering one-and-one-half ounces of cocaine to Michalowicz at his Joanna Court apartment.

Both have been charged with possession of a controlled substance and intent to deliver a controlled substance.

At press time, they are in Lake County Jail under $10,000 bond each, awaiting the setting of a date for preliminary hearings.

Cops arrest adult, 3 juveniles in burglaries

There have been five residential burglaries to homes on the north side of the village lately, and, according to Antioch Police, those burglaries have been solved.

On Friday, following up on investigations made by patrol officers, police picked-up an Antioch 16-year-old male for questioning concerning the burglaries.

The subject led the police to two other 16-year-olds and Michael Randall, 17, all of Antioch.

Randall has been charged with five counts of residential burglary and is in Lake County jail under $10,000 bond, awaiting preliminary hearing.

Petitions with juvenile authorities have been filed on the three 16-year-olds and they will undergo juvenile proceedings.

One has been charged with two counts of burglary, one with four counts and the other with five counts.

Stolen in the burglaries was approximately $300 in coins and jewelry. Most of the jewelry was recovered.

Vos in top 10 in Illinois volunteer award rating

by GLORIA DAVIS

The North Shore Magazine awarded the top 10 Illinois volunteers, in the Volunteer of the Year Award contest at a banquet held at the Skokie Hilton.

After being nominated by Angie Maras, Louis Vos, who has worked tirelessly for the Antioch Mental Health Assn., especially in the running of the Thrift Shop on Main St., was named in that top 10.

In Vos' nomination letter, Maras describes Vos as "a gracious lady, with dedication, drive, enthusiasm, zest for living and a desire to help those less fortunate than herself."

Maras further describes Vos' ability to get other volunteers to work endless hours for the mentally retarded, as an ability to inspire other women.

Vos was the founder in 1967, and is still the guiding light of the Antioch Mental Health Assn.

Maras adds that when the Thrift shop burned in 1970 and it and all its inventory were destroyed, Vos purchased the present building on Main St. where the thrift business is now thriving.

"At any given time, she may be found sorting through donations, washing and ironing clothes, scheduling the 30 volunteers and handling the banking, books, and etc.," describes Maras.

Vos has also served on the Antioch Library Board of Directors for 45 years and has been president of the Antioch Woman's Club in the 50 years she has been a member of that organization.

Maras added that "Vos is a humanitarian the believes she is her brother's keeper and an outstanding woman who will leave the world a better place for having been here."

Shopping Antioch, visiting Santa way to go

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312)395-5380

Remember to shop Antioch for that extra special Christmas gift. While shopping don't forget to take the kids to visit Santa Claus in his beautiful Enchanted Castle. The castle is open from 5 to 8 p.m. on Monday through Friday and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Santa Claus will be on hand with her elf-made camera to take pictures. Also, the "little ones" may send their letters to Santa Claus at 100 Toyland Rd., Antioch.

Christmas is in the air right along with the American Revolution at Emmons Grade School. To spark some added Christmas spirit the fifth grade will once again be making their beautiful gingerbread houses.

So you think Santa only has elves helping him with his Christmas chores? If so, guess again! On Thursday, Dec. 15 the junior high put on a play during the annual fourth through eighth grade Christmas program.

The play was entitled "Santa the Mechanic Fanatic".

Would you believe robots will take over the traditional job of Santa's elves? The fourth and sixth grade was present to truly make this an evening to remember.

Al Vandrush gave a speech on the Revolutionary War to the fifth graders at Emmons and answered questions from them. Vandrush is a history buff and his presentation to the class along with various other class projects made the American Revolution come alive to the fifth graders. Sounds like someone at Emmons found a perfect way to make history interesting to the students.

On Tuesday, Dec. 20, there will be a band concert at the Antioch Upper Grade gym at 7:30 p.m. and both the junior and senior bands will be performing.

The choir contest under the new leadership of Cathy

Services at (312)356-1021.

I'd like to say hello Celia and Victor Bennett of Oxford, Ga. As I write this article from your old home town it is about 25 degrees and extremely windy. I really loved hearing from Victor, but did he have to tell me about the 68 degrees you were all enjoying down there. Hope you get a sun burn and peel on Christmas Day! By the way, Celia, did you open your Christmas present yet?

Can you believe it? Only 10 more days until Christmas. I'd like to say this to all of my family and friends, "I love gifts and I'm easy to please!" How about care, and listen to your wife and soon you will be back to normal. I guess that would be impossible since you weren't normal to begin with. That statement, of course, is meant in the nicest sense of the word.

Yes, Ray Brausam, and friends, we all hope there is a lot of snow in northern Wisconsin so you can all enjoy a week of snowmobiling in the beautiful north woods.

Has anyone been into the Antioch Schwinn Cyclery Shop to see the beautiful skateboards they have in stock? My son has and is already saving his money to buy a new skateboard in the spring.

Okay readers make my phone ring off the hook and you all call me with your news and special remembrances for your family and friends. I'll be waiting to hear from you. Remember, just ask for "The Lizard!"

AUGS collects labels

The Antioch Lower Grade has just finished Santa's Secret Workshop, which was successful this year. The students had fun shopping for their moms, dads, brothers, sisters, and grandparents for Christmas.

On Tuesday, Dec. 13, at 1:30 the children were entertained by Jeff Fredrickson, a magician who uses real bunnies in his show.

Finally, the Campbell Soup label contest is in full swing. The theme for this year is "The Antioch Road Race." The students are collecting labels until March 1 and any person wishing to donate their labels to the school may drop the off in the office.

If there are any questions call Joan Horan, (312) 395-2598 or Monday and Tuesday (312) 395-1905.

Church to feature Lustrea

Anita Lustrea

Singer Anita Lustrea will be the featured artist at this Sunday's evening's Christmas concert at the Chain O'Lakes Community Bible Church in Antioch. The concert will begin at 6 and will be held at the church's temporary meeting place, the Antioch VFW hall on North Ave., just east of Rte 83.

Lustrea, a contemporary Christian vocal artist, has sung throughout the Midwest. Local television appearances include the Chicago Sunday Evening Club, and Windy City Alive. In September of this year she released her first album titled "Joy for the Journey".

"We are all on a journey," Lustrea said. "Joy for the Journey" was designed to be an encouragement to all of us as we travel through this world with all of its heartaches. The ease of the journey does necessarily become greater by knowing Christ. But the joy certainly does," she said.

Lustrea also works as the music coordinator for the Moody Broadcasting Network.

Also included during the evening will be a Christmas video for the children. A nursery will also be available. Refreshments will be served afterwards. For more information call the church's Lake Villa office at (312) 356-2090.

Christmas music in the halls of Antioch High

A flute ensemble will present "A Sleigh Ride Samba" and a clarinet choir will perform "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas."

Choral groups performing under the direction of Keith Cox will be the girl's glee club, concert choir, and show choir. The girl's glee club will perform "How Far it is to Bethlehem," and "Therefore be Merry." Concert choir selections include "It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year," "The Holly and the Ivy," and "Still, Still, Still." The show choir will perform "Honon and Gloria."

The fine arts department at Antioch Community High School invites everyone to join them as they celebrate Christmas with music and song on Saturday, Dec. 17 at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 18 at 2:00 p.m. in the auditorium of the school, located at 1133 S. Main Street in Antioch.

The Saturday evening program will feature the symphonic band under the direction of Johns Olisar. Their selection will include "O Tannenbaum," "Deck the Halls", and LeRoy Anderson's "A Christmas Festival".

Honor Skidmore

Air force 1st Lt. Steven D. Skidmore, son of Donald and Evelyn Skidmore, Antioch, has been named company parade officer of the quarter. Skidmore is a weather officer with the 30th Weather Squadron in South Korea.

The selection was based on his exemplary duty performance, job knowledge, leadership qualities, significant self improvement and other accomplishments.

He is a 1981 graduate of Antioch Community High School and a 1986 graduate of North Carolina State University.

Maple leads Antioch girls to first victory

Something had to give Saturday afternoon in Antioch.

North Chicago and Antioch's girls basketball teams entered the North Suburban Conference contest with a combined 0-13 record. According to league rules, somebody had to win.

And it was the homestanding Sequoits, who used a third-quarter flurry to break away, which came away with a 55-47 win.

"We showed the potential I knew we were capable of," Antioch Coach Cindy Martin said.

Kelly Maple led the way for Antioch, scoring 18 points in three quarters. Teri Farnsworth had a strong 16 points and Liz Johnson had 10 points.

"She played a good game," Martin said of Maple.

Antioch hopes its newfound confidence will continue when the Sequoits,

1-5 in NSC play, travel to Zion-Benton Dec. 17.

For North Chicago, the loss was the sixth straight, something new for head coach Mike Moore.

"We self-destructed. At certain times we were our own worst enemy," Moore said.

Donna Levy did score 10 points for the visitors, but they all came in the first half. Tanya Broyles had 14, 12 in the second half.

The visitors were left feeling good about their chances at halftime. A three-point shot by Terry Jarrett was ruled inside the two-pointer, leaving North Chicago trailing 35-30.

Neither team could get on track in the first quarter. North Chicago committed five turnovers to start the game. Almost two minutes elapsed before Antioch's Maple put home a tip-in.

Another offensive rebound-basket by Maple gave the home team a 16-13 lead after North Chicago's Cydney Coleman had cut the lead to one.

Antioch opened up its margin in the second stanza, gaining a 28-21 lead on a Maple hoop with 2:10 left.

Liberty Lakes scraps plan for new village

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Liberty Lakes is folding its tent. Instead of seeking incorporation as Lake County's newest village, it will renew efforts for annexation to Lake Villa or, barring that and the new makeup of the County Board, look to it for protection.

A letter expressing continued interest in annexing to Lake Villa was scheduled to be read at a village board meeting earlier this week.

Meanwhile, the 40 members of a core group that spearheaded a two-year incorporation effort were to meet Friday, Dec. 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett on Fairfield Rd. for a Christmas party.

At that party will be decided how the 40 will pay the remaining $3,000 from the two-year battle that went from the County Board to the state and U.S. Supreme Courts. Most of the $35,000 in legal bills has been paid off through fund-raising sales and donations from individuals and homeowner associations in the 24-square-mile U-shaped area known as Liberty Lakes.

"After this weekend we should almost be ready to close the books on our incorporation efforts," Jo Garrett said. "We think it is expedient to pursue other avenues."

"If we can work with Lake Villa that is what we would like to do," Garrett said. "The village board previously asked us to survey residents. But that job is too massive. Maybe if we could sit down as a committee and work out some details to define the area of annexation we could find some common ground."

Some parts of the 24-square mile Liberty Lakes are more interested in annexation than others, Garrett said.

Strong interest has been shown by West Milmore, which is being threatened on its south border where Round Lake Beach has annexed land for a 450-unit subdivision.

Residents to the west on both sides of Fairfield Rd., south of Monaville Rd.,

where the Garretts live, favor annexation.

Those living to the north toward Antioch in Lake Villa Twp. are split, Garrett said.

"When we talk annexation these days we are not talking about 24-square miles," Garrett said. "If Lake Villa will tell us what it can accept I think things can be worked out."

With several areas no longer interested in annexation or incorporation, Garrett said it would cost too much for a new map of the area and preparation of a legal description. "Rather than go through all of that again we are just going to close the books on Liberty Lakes," she said.

If Lake Villa is not receptive, Garrett said she her group will look for continued protection from Lake County. Of the new County Board members sworn in this month, Suzi Schmidt of Lake Villa Twp. is a personal friend of the Garretts. So is Norman Geary of Avon Twp., the new County Board chairman.

Antioch hopes to extend two game winning streak

Antioch's varsity boys' basketball team will try to extend its two game winning streak when it travels to Lake Forest tonight for a North Suburban Conference (NSC) contest.

The Scouts are winless in six attempts thus far in the 1988-89 campaign. The Sequoits are 3-4 overall and 2-1 in the NSC.

Antioch Coach Jeff Dresser said his Sequoits will play a stiff man-to-man defense against the Scouts. "Man-to-man worked real well for us last weekend, and I think it will be the best way for us to go this weekend as well," he said.

The Sequoits defeated Niles North last Friday 56-48. Matt Pelland led the team in scoring with 15 and rebounds with 14. Scott Gooch and Ryan Kosky each added 12 points for the Sequoit victory.

Saturday night, Antioch came from behind to defeat a tough Mundelein squad 62-57. The Sequoits were down 30-18 at the half, but a half-court trap defense sparked Antioch enroute to the win.

The Sequoits made a terrible seven of 31 shot attempts in the first half, but came back with a respectable 17-29 in the second half.

Skidmore told the board that he had received notice from the Army Corps of Engineers that a permit to construct a 980-acre residential development at the corner of Grass Lake and Deep Lake Rds. had been applied for. Skidmore said that the developer had yet to contact the schools with the planned number homes set to go into the development called Painted Lakes (formerly Cedar Shores.)

The board also heard that plans for 32 townhomes to be built on Highview Dr., east of the school, by Good News Realty and Builder's, Inc. should yield nine new students to the district.

In other business, the board heard that a retirement dinner for Harry Smith was held by the employees and Principal Harley Ware presented a watch to Smith on behalf of the school board.

Referendum

"Getting signatures really takes time," adds Wilton, "people want to talk about this and other issues, sometime it takes hours just to get 12 people to sign."

Wilton, who is opposing incumbent Mayor Ray Toft, freely admits that this gives him a chance to do a little campaigning along the way.

Toft has said he sees nothing wrong with establishing the commission, having reservations only if it would affect the firemen's pensions which would cost the village money.

At the present time, the firemen are volunteers so this will be no problem.

Reaching out to troubled teens

St. Therese Medical Center has opened a new program which treats teens with psychiatric problems in combination with a chemical dependency.

"Kids turn to alcohol or drugs to relieve their problems, whether they include depression or a poor home life," said Pat Ames, nurse manager of the adolescent psychiatric unit. "We work with the patient within the framework of the Adolescent Psychiatric Program. However, an added emphasis is placed on the therapy used in Alcoholics Anonymous and similar dependency programs."

Another facet of the program is understanding the family role in the patient's life. "Many times, the families contribute to the patient's substance abuse," said Ames. "Family members who drink and dabble in drugs are a real threat. We work with the patient and the family in resolving this threat." Ames noted the program has already received an enthusiastic response from the community.

For more information on the program, call (312)360-2210.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

FROM THE OFFICE OF
DR. PAUL ABLER

GOOD SKATES

When it comes to buying ice skates for children, the best choice may not necessarily be the most expensive. The most important criterion is proper fit.

Too many parents purchase skates larger than they should be with the thought that they will continue to fit for several seasons as the child's foot grows. But loosely fitting skate boots make it difficult for youngsters to skate, or even stand. Worse, they might be the cause of injuries to the ankle or foot.

Proper fit means that the heel is held snugly in the boot's heel cup, the toes come close to the front, and the boot provides adequate support. Skating socks should be worn when trying on skates for correct fit.

If a child's foot has a tendency to turn inward with each stride, an evaluation by a podiatrist is in order. A customized orthotic insert could improve skating ability and enjoyment.

Join Santa at the library's family holiday

by PAT WEISS

In the "Playing With Fire" Dept.: Have you checked out the shining red wreaths in the fire department stations? They are safety reminders for all holiday merry-makers. The wreaths are lit by red bulbs, and should misfortune strike and a holiday fire claim a life a red bulb is replaced by a white one. A few years ago, the Wauconda Fire Dept. started this fine program, adding still another great Christmas tradition to our town. The department would like to send a few precautionary tips your way: Be sure to screen fireplaces and have chimneys swept to ensure free flow of hot smoke and gases. Only use approved electrical decorations and take care not to overload circuits. Be sure live Christmas trees are placed in water and away from any potential heat sources. Remember to check smoke alarms to be sure they work properly. After parties, check for careless smokers' leftovers (cigarette butts left in a couch or chair can smolder for hours producing toxic smoke and gases). Be sure to keep any open flames such as candles and lanterns clear of any combustible materials. And, feel free to call the Wauconda Fire

Dept. at (312)526-2821 if you have any questions. Now, let's all put safety at the top of our Christmas lists and help keep those wreaths RED!

In the "Sound of Music" Dept.: Last call to make plans for a Christmas-y treat. The Transfiguration Combined Choir's concert, "The Spirit of Christmas". It's a musical blend of holiday harmony under the magical direction of Sally Welter. In this rushing, stressful period of the year, you really should take some time out and stop and smell the roses—or in this case stop and listen to the music. The concert will be held at 5 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 18, at Transfiguration Church.

In the "This Must Be the Place" Dept.: Whatever you do, don't ask Joy Walker or Rick Weiss for directions to Rockford. They just went through a harrowing experience—and it all started out so festively! It seems the comely couple were on their way to a company Christmas party in beautiful downtown Rockford, with a set of directions in their hands and a sense of fun in their hearts when they met with confusion.

The above mentioned directions left much to be desired. So, while trying to follow the map they did a lot of sightseeing before they found the address in a rather dubious neighborhood.

Still following the map, they entered the building cautiously and took the elevator to the designated floor. As they stepped out of the elevator, they faced a huge dark, empty warehouse-type room with two doors at the far end. They entered the first door and found themselves in a strange and questionable bar containing two people—a lady customer, sleeping on the bar, and the bartender, playing video games in the corner. They decided against door No. 2 and opted for a hasty retreat to the outside, where they met a passerby who informed them the place they were looking for had moved years ago.

Another hour of sightseeing brought them to the new address, where an index indicated they were to go to the 13th (yes, you heard right, folks) floor by way of non-working elevators.

Out of breath and out of directions, they finally arrived at the party, which consisted of rows and rows of half-filled tables facing a really odd stage where a high school play was in progress.

They ended the gala evening at a local restaurant where they had still another strange encounter—a waitress/waiter who couldn't seem to make up her/his mind as to which gender she/he belonged to. ...and, so it goes, with the "Rockford Files".

In the "It's Worth the Drive" Dept.: The Adult Services Dept. of the Wauconda Area Public Library is gassing up the old bus in readiness for another outstanding drama departure—the Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy.

When Personal Problems Disrupt Your Life ...

Are You a Candidate for Burn Out?

When a person works and strives excessively over a long period of time to do an outstanding job, burn out can result. Instead of feeling a joyful sense of accomplishment, high achievers can reach a state of physical and emotional exhaustion as time for rest and recreation are set aside to accomplish one's goals. Symptoms of burn out can include: chronic fatigue, working harder but accomplishing less, irritability, forgetfulness, lingering colds, frequent headaches or digestive problems. You may notice yourself eating or drinking more to relieve anxiety.

Both men and women experience burn out but their patterns of stress differ. Men who are prone to burn out tend to be career focused, intensely competitive and have an extreme sense of urgency, hurry and impatience. Women, can burn out in an attempt to succeed in a career and fulfill the traditional woman's role simultaneously. Stress and pressure become intense when a woman takes on two full-time jobs, one at work and one at home. Men and women who strive excessively often come from families where they experienced strong achievement pressures and a large amount of responsibility at an early age.

If you are noticing symptoms of burn out in yourself, it is time to pause and examine your lifestyle. How much of your time is spent doing things you should do as opposed to things you want to do? Do you take care of yourself by eating well and exercising? Is time for closeness with family and friends available? Try to replace work activities that are not essential with activities that enable you to provide for your own needs. Keep in mind that you have little to give to others when you are "running on empty" yourself.

Professional help is indicated when a person is unable to implement the above suggestions or when burnout has reached an advanced stage. Lake-Cook Psychologists and Counseling Associates offers assistance in reducing stress and promoting a healthy, balanced lifestyle.

Take pride in jail

When the new Robert H. Babcox Justice Center is occupied next month, Lake County will be vaulting light years ahead in jail facilities and administration. For a few months, at least, Lake County will have the most modern county jail facility in the nation.

The new jail in Waukegan, named in honor of the late sheriff, will not only be the most modern in a bricks and mortar sense, but personnel will be instituting the most modern practices and precepts in the world of penology today. The Babcox Justice Center, a "jail without bars," truly will be state of the art.

The nearly $30 million facility will house the jail, sheriff's administrative offices, work release center, court annex of three court rooms and much needed support and storage space. The imposing structure will replace a facility termed by the John Howard Society, a prison inmates' watchdog organization, as "the worst county jail in Illinois." The disparaging label isn't a reflection of disinterest or lack of caring by officialdom, but more the result of overcrowding and changing methods in jail administration and public standards.

Besides the absence of bars, the new jail will be different in many ways. Every inmate will be housed individually in a cell with a window to the outside world. There will be such features as a 12 person medical unit that is virtually a mini-hospital, a dental office, a barber/beauty shop, carpeted common areas in the 48-person cellblock "pods," a classroom, a well-stocked library and a basketball gymnasium. There won't be any guns or clubs. Corrections officers will be armed only with a radio as they go about their duties.

But any idea on the part of the public that taxpayers have built a "prep school" for wrongdoers is totally misleading. Because of the new facilities and modern methods, Sheriff Clinton Grinnell and his staff will be able to "take back" management of the jail from the inmates. Modern jail administration provides for both more privileges and more restrictions at the same time. Through the theory of "direct supervision," Lake County's jail will be a safer and more humane place. Inmates will conform to rigid military-like standards of conduct. Violators of jail rules will end up in the maximum security wing under total lockdown 23 hours a day. Babcox Center is a jail, all right.

Citizens can take pride in the fact that they have done their duty in providing a facility like the new Babcox Justice Center.

Visit Winchester House

In extending public thanks to the 74,863 citizens who supported the tax increase referendum for Winchester House, the citizens committee working for passage of the increase called attention to the fact that many voters may not be familiar with Lake County's extended care facility located in Libertyville.

The committee encouraged residents who haven't visited Winchester to arrange a tour. Good idea. Visitors always are welcome. Guided tours can be arranged by calling (312)362-4340, ext. 262.

There is some truth that the defeat can be attributed, in part, to lack of understanding of the services available at Winchester House. In a greater part, though, the defeat resulted from the fact that taxpayers feel they already are supporting Winchester House through the county's general fund and through public monies funneled to Winchester through the townships. Call this the "enough is enough" syndrome.

What needs to be more widely understood is that the present funding mechanism is resulting in a deficit generated from inadequate public aid funding. That's the reason for increasing the Winchester tax rate. It was unfortunate, though, that officials asked for a larger levy increase than was necessary. We don't think that strategy sat very well with voters.

A job is a job

A lot of the teeth gnashing and hand wringing over the demise of Chrysler Corp. in Kenosha should subside now that Rust-O-leum, headquartered in Vernon Hills, has decided to locate a 240,000 square foot production facility and research and development center in an industrial development on the Wisconsin side of the stateline.

Rust-O-leum will bring jobs to an area where jobs are needed. Promoters like to point out that the 1,200-acre development in which the new plant will be located was selected because of its location plus attractive corporate tax rates, a 60 percent capital-gains exclusion and low utility rates. All those things undoubtedly were important, but we're sure Rust-O-leum management also didn't overlook the readily available abundant labor supply. A job is a job, whether you're making cars or paint.

Reclamation project on river gone awry

by RONALD E. GRIESHEIMER

For a decade and a half, various groups in Lake County have looked to the Lake County Forest Preserve District with divergent interests ranging from protecting our natural wildlife habitat, to stopping normal responsible and planned development. To each group, their goals are valid ones. Indeed, how could anyone question the need in a vastly urbanizing county of preserving a segment of its natural heritage for the future!

Commentary

Somehow, it appears that one of the many projects of the Lake County Forest Preserve district has gone well awry of the proper goals relating to our preservation of natural habitat and is literally costing the taxpayers millions of dollars. I refer to the apparently never-ending Des Plaines River Water Reclamation Project adjacent to Wadsworth Road and Rte. 41 in Newport Township.

This project, initiated as a "pilot project" for future similar developments in Illinois, has been funded with millions of dollars of State and Federal money. The avowed purpose is to let nature clean up the waters of the Des Plaines River through a vast and interrelated group of ponds and manual ducting systems through which river water is diverted. We were promised before the project began that it would "return the area to its natural state". One need only go to the site to find that the Forest Preserve District has all but destroyed this previously beautiful area. The first portion of the project, which is still ongoing within the literally hundreds of acres adjacent to the Des Plaines River, is cutting and burning all of the underbrush and small, natural occurring trees. Indeed, if one were to look down that portion of Mill Creek running east of Rte. 41 toward the Des Plaines River, you would think the Forest Preserve District was going into competition with municipal parks and were ready to start seeding the ground for lawn mowing. There is no area left for habitat for many birds and animals of all sizes. With the smoking piles of trees and underbrush mindlessly billowing up in all corners of the project, it looks much like the areas of Western Europe after the passage of the great armies during World War II.

In the historic area adjacent to the Wadsworth bridge, adjacent to downtown Wadsworth on Wadsworth Rd., where there previously had been many naturally occurring trees of significant size, sheltering and shading the area for fisherman, canoeer and naturalists, there is now a bleak look of desolation. Ah yes, the Forest Preserve District has added something to this particular area. They have added an unsightly standpipe protruding five feet out of the ground, accompanied by a large electrical box and a blaring mercury vapor light.

Lastly, one must ask, "is it now appropriate to create an ongoing system for cleaning the Des Plaines River in order to perpetually cleanse this natural tributary?" At the point where this project is located, it's hard to understand (Continued on Page 13)

Popular place to get married: Walworth County

by BILL SCHROEDER

Thanks to Illinois couples, Walworth County, Wis., is winding up another banner year in the marriage license business.

Ever since Illinois added AIDS testing as part of the blood test requirement, stateline border counties have been issuing a lot of licenses to Illinois couples getting married. Wisconsin has no blood test law.

In Walworth County, the Illinois AIDS test requirement contributed to doubling the number of marriage licenses formerly issued, according to County Clerk Carol Krauklis. With only a few weeks to go, Walworth's 1988 marriage license total stood at 1,165, with 588 licenses being issued to Illinois residents. Walworth County charges $40 for a marriage license, with $25 going to the State of Wisconsin, so there's a little profit for the county. Wisconsin has a five-day waiting period.

Somewhat surprising, there hasn't been an upswing in the wedding chapel business in Elkhorn, the county seat of Walworth, Krauklis reported. Lake Geneva offers a version of "Marrying Sam", who's available to handle a hitch. Wisconsin law also provides for family court commissioners, court aides—usually lawyers—who are empowered to perform wedding ceremonies. They tie the knots so local judges and clergy aren't overburdened.

WAITING—There's a good reason why Bob Wilton, who does an excellent impersonation of Abraham Lincoln, hasn't made any Lincoln appearances lately. "No one has asked me," remarked Bob, with a grin.

Wilton, a village trustee of Antioch and former mayor, may be called upon soon to bring his stovepipe hat and frock coat out of mothballs, as efforts gather steam to properly identify Illinois with commissioning, due next November, of our nation's newest super aircraft carrier, the U.S.S. Abraham Lincoln.

Citizens from all walks of life have an opportunity to participate in outfitting the Lincoln with memorabilia and an official Lincoln room to be used by the crew of 6,000. A special detachment of 80 Illinois recruits is training right now at Great Lakes Naval Training Center which will be assigned to the Lincoln upon graduation.

HOLIDAY 'MARKS'—If you're into this sort of thing, the post office issued a reminder of some neat special holiday postmarks. To get the special postmarks, simply address greeting cards as usual and apply first-class postage to each. Then put your mail into a large envelope and mail to the postmaster with a note requesting the cards be postmarked in that community.

You can select from these postmarks: Bethlechem, CT 06751-9998; Bethlehem, PA 18016-9998; Christmas, FL 32709-9998; North Pole, AK 99705-9998; Santa Claus, IN 47579-9998; Noel, MS 64845-9998; Mistletoe, KY 41351-9998; Snowflake, AZ 85937-9998; and Rudolph, OH 43452-9998.

Politically speaking....

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Special interest legislation starts in strange ways. At this month's reorganization meeting of the County Board, Dist. 1 member Helen Belmont Amendola of Highland Park showed up in a hospital bed accompanied by two paramedics. She is fighting cancer.

The dean of the County Board was there to see to it Norman Geary was elected chairman. He was.

Sitting in the gallery, state Rep. John Matijevich (D-North Chicago) was so moved he plans to introduce special legislation for the future Amendolas of this state. It will provide absentee voting for County Board members. A doctor's excuse is the only thing needed.

It should be noted similar legislation failed in the past. "Too much of a chance for political chicanery," critics said. What are the chances this time? About the same.

George Bell says he is going to hang it up. Well, to a point. Now 77, he is retiring as Fremont Twp. supervisor after 18 years.

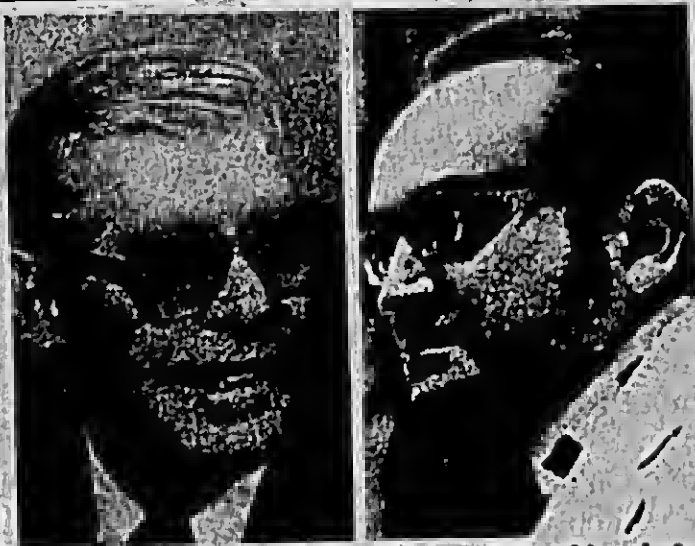

He served on the Lake County Board and was the first chairman of the Forest Preserve Dist. from 1974 to 1978. That was when it bought 11,000 acres of land ranging from land for a bridal and hiking trail along the DesPlaines River to Countryside Golf Course, Gander Mountain Park and, planned before he left, Brae Loch Country Club.

Never once did he use a veto. "That is why I was critical of Don Strenger," Bell said of his recently-defeated Forest Preserve Dist. successor. Strenger vetoed eight land purchases in the past 18 months. "I didn't think such action was in the prerogative of the chairman or the spirit of the district," Bell said.

Bell came to these parts in 1959 to run Burgess-Vibrocrafter Inc., Grayslake makers of paint sprayers, metal engravers, lawn trimmers, sprinklers and humidifiers. After leaving the business he kept Brand Service Centers, a chain of 18 stores (including one in Waukegan, two in Milwaukee and several Chicago suburbs) repairing everything from toasters to television and lots more small appliances in between. "That will keep me busy along with my other interests," said the kindly man with a good work for everybody.

Don't look for a negative opinion from Lake County State's Atty. on the double dipping of County Board chairman and Avon Twp. Sup. Norman Geary.

Opponents of the supervisor in next April's election have charged him with taking an extra $1,500 as chairman of the town board of trustees. Geary says this has been going on since he came to office.

Gerald Beyer John Matijevich

in 1963 and continued a practice established by his predecessor.

State statutes are silent on the matter, so it is neither legal or illegal, says a legal opinion obtained by Geary last year.

That's about the way Foreman's office looks at it. He only smiles and gives a low laugh when asked when his opinion can be expected. One of his staffers notes this is the political season. Like young lovers, neither they nor politicians should be held accountable for what they say or do at this time of the year.

Christmas decoration lovers might like to try Garland Rd. near Wauconda. Catch it off Bonner Rd. or from downtown Wauconda.

"There is a whole string of beautifully-decorated homes," said Wauconda Twp. Sup. Gerald Beyer, ending with his own. His has lighted wreaths on the house, a 20-foot lighted tree out front and a star atop a towering flagpole that can be seen for a distance while negotiating the winding road.

Beyer has more time to help make his part of the world a little more beautiful. After eight years as being both a supervisor and County Board member for Dist. 6, he was retired from the latter post in the November election by Roberta O'Reilly of Long Grove.

There have been quite a few retirements in the last few years for the 61-year-old successor to Robert Dickson as the Wauconda Twp. powerhouse. Eight years ago he gave up flying his Cessna 182. This made the drive to a Lake Tomahawk, Wis., summer home look too long by car, so he sold that, too. A few years before all of this Beyer retired from the building contracting business after 28 years.

"I've still got my home, yard, some 70 trees and hundreds of flowers," the supervisor said. "I can't retire from taking care of them."

"I am also going to be as active as I once was in the Chamber of Commerce and Lions," he promises. "With all of the night County Board meetings those suffered in the past. That will change in 1989."

Everyone has a role in waste management

by MARJORIE SENNHOLTZ

Getting rid of garbage is a problem all over the country, and one we don't like to think about. We have been fortunate to have it removed from our premises regularly and where it has gone has not concerned us much.

But it does concern our public officials because they must deal with the problems. Landfills now in operation are running out of space and alternate sites are hard to find, expensive to reach, and waste valuable land.

All landfills will leak, liners may tear, leachate pipes clog up, and other unforeseen problems may occur even in the best operated sites. Landfills can pollute groundwater and surface water with the toxic materials found in ordinary wastes. And once polluted, the water supplies are difficult and expensive to clean up-if they can be cleaned up at all. It is unpleasant business, and no one really wants to have one sited nearby. "Not in My Backyard" is a pretty universal cry.

The Lake County League of Women Voters and the Citizens for a Better Environment have recently presented a long and technical testimony to the Lake County Solid Waste Advisory Committee which emphasizes an integrated approach to solid waste management that makes waste reduction and recycling its centerpiece. This approach should contain the following elements:

- incentives and other measures to reduce the amount of waste generated by 10 percent, and to reuse or recycle at least 45 percent.

- incinerator capacity limited to no more than 25 percent of the current solid waste load.

- stringent and comprehensive standards for incineration air emissions and ash disposal.

While there is a role for landfilling, it must be considered a disposal method of last resort.

LWVLC and CBE recommend that Lake County municipalities over 5,000 population should enact ordinances establishing mandatory curbside recycling programs for all households, businesses, governmental offices, and institutions. It is suggested that paper, glass, and aluminum be separated for curbside pick-up.

Composting of leaves, grass clippings, and tree trimmings would reduce the county's waste stream by 20 percent. Elimination of these yard wastes, which usually have a high moisture content, will ensure better combustion in an incinerator. A recently enacted state law will ban leaves from landfills in 1990 unless such facilities include composting.

It is time that citizens of Lake County become concerned and involved with the disposal of solid waste. Each of us can make a contribution to the impending crisis we are facing.

Questions mayor's opinion

Editor:

Mayor Edwin Schroeder of Grayslake voices many of the same platitudes that are expressed by those in Libertyville who would pillor Mike Graham for his stands against uncontrolled growth. Citizens need to be aware that this same group also owns substantial property in Grayslake, and will do anything in their power to maximize personal gain, regardless of the consequences or increases in taxes to the community.

The mayor insinuated that the issues involved are only the concern of Grayslake. Nothing could be further from the truth. Many of the developments in Grayslake are in other school and park districts, such as Woodland School and the Wildwood Park Dist. Incidentally, Grayslake chose to waive the donation ordinance to the Wildwood Park Dist. as part of the deal on the development at the corner of Rtes. 45 and 120. This was done over the objection of the Wildwood Park Dist.

Schroeder's worst insinuation is that outsiders should stay out of Grayslake politics. Unless Mayor Schroeder had the constitution repealed while no one was looking, I was under the impression that citizens in this country had the right to work for or against candidates of their choosing, regardless of where they lived.

New breathing space

Editor:

Sixteen years ago, our family moved to Libertyville Township from Cherry Hill, N.J., a community that was then in the process of paving over its orchards with high density housing.

In researching where to settle with our young family, we investigated Arlington Heights and Palatine, among other communities. We finally decided on Libertyville for a number of reasons:

excellent schools, a strong sense of community, and the fact that it did not have "wall to wall people," with all that implies.

Over the years we have become increasingly concerned that the Libertyville area might end up like Cherry Hill is today: six-lane traffic jams, gridlock to the shopping malls, litter, and overcrowded classrooms to name a few.

Growth must be well planned. The Libertyville village board is to be congratulated for the various environmental safeguards it has been insisting on recently to developers: lowered density, protection of wetlands and treed areas, and impact fees for the schools.

Jerome Aguirre is to be commended for not yielding to the pressures of development in the case of the Leesley property/Pulte annexation proposal on Rte. 137 near Butterfield Rd. His "no" vote will help to keep a balance between the intense growth in the northwest corner of Libertyville Township and the desire of human beings to have a bit of breathing space to enjoy their beautiful environment.

Reclamation

what great amount of effluent or other potential pollutants could be entering the Des Plaines River from its source that would require such immense investment for cleaning purposes. The river's source is only a few miles north in Kenosha County. Possibly, the Lake County Forest Preserve District intends to start bottling the water after it passes through this system and will sell it like Perrier to future generations.

As a resident of the area, it appears that the damage is irreversible. However, in the wisdom of our County Board and its general membership, it appears that a new regime has been appointed and entrusted with the stewardship of our Lake County Forest Preserve District.

It would be my profound hope that these new individuals take a close look at the Des Plaines River Project and other similar projects in Lake County to determine whether the real goals of a Forest Preserve District are being met or merely the whims of a few capricious experimenters with our natural environment. Somehow, people in government have a hard time understanding that if something is working right, you shouldn't fix it.

OFF THE WALL

New county facility is something special

by MIKE PRAMSHAFFER

Back in November of 1986, the Lake County Public Building Commission broke ground for the new Robert H. Babcox Justice Center in Waukegan. A little over two years later, occupancy in the new facility is just around the corner.

With a current capacity of 286 and a total future capacity of 430, the new facility is scheduled to be open next month.

Sheriff Clint Grinnell and Ed Sindles, deputy superintendent of operations at the new jail, conducted an in-depth tour of the justice center with Lakeland Publishers.

The facility has been built in memory of Former Sheriff Robert H. "Mickey" Babcox, who served Lake County in that capacity from 1982-1988. Located at 20 S. County St. and 25 S. Utica St., total construction cost of the jail was $29,662,414.

The facility, which will be the most modern county jail facility in the nation, is basically divided into five areas: Lake County Jail, Work Release Facility, Sheriff's Administration Offices, Courts Annex, and Building Support and Storage. The gross square footage is 248,728.

The jail portion includes 240 single incarceration cells, 12 single medical holding cells, eight general holding cells and four group holding cells. Half of the fifth floor and all of the sixth floor of the jail has not been completed as of yet. Available future expansion consists of 144 single incarceration cells.

The Work Release Facility consists of 126 single detention cubicles and 13 double detention cubicles for a total current capacity of 152.

"The purpose of this facility is to detain our inmates in a safe, humane manner. Sure, they'll have to conform to strict standards, but there are a lot of privileges here for them too."

The main security for the jail is provided by Central Control, which includes cameras throughout the facility and a "security buzzer" at each door. It is known as a "secure perimeter jail."

One of the big differences between this facility and the county's current jail is that there are no jail bars in the new building. Inmates will be housed individually in a cell with a window.

Sheriff Grinnell has instituted the modern administration of a jail with this new facility, meaning inmates will have more privileges but more restrictions as well.

"The new facility will be manned on the theory of 'direct supervision' in 48-person cellblock pods. Inmates will have to conform to strict standards of conduct and will be moved to maximum security with 23 hour lockdown if they don't conform. They are treated by the way they act. Correction officers will not carry guns and they will only be armed with radios," said Sindles.

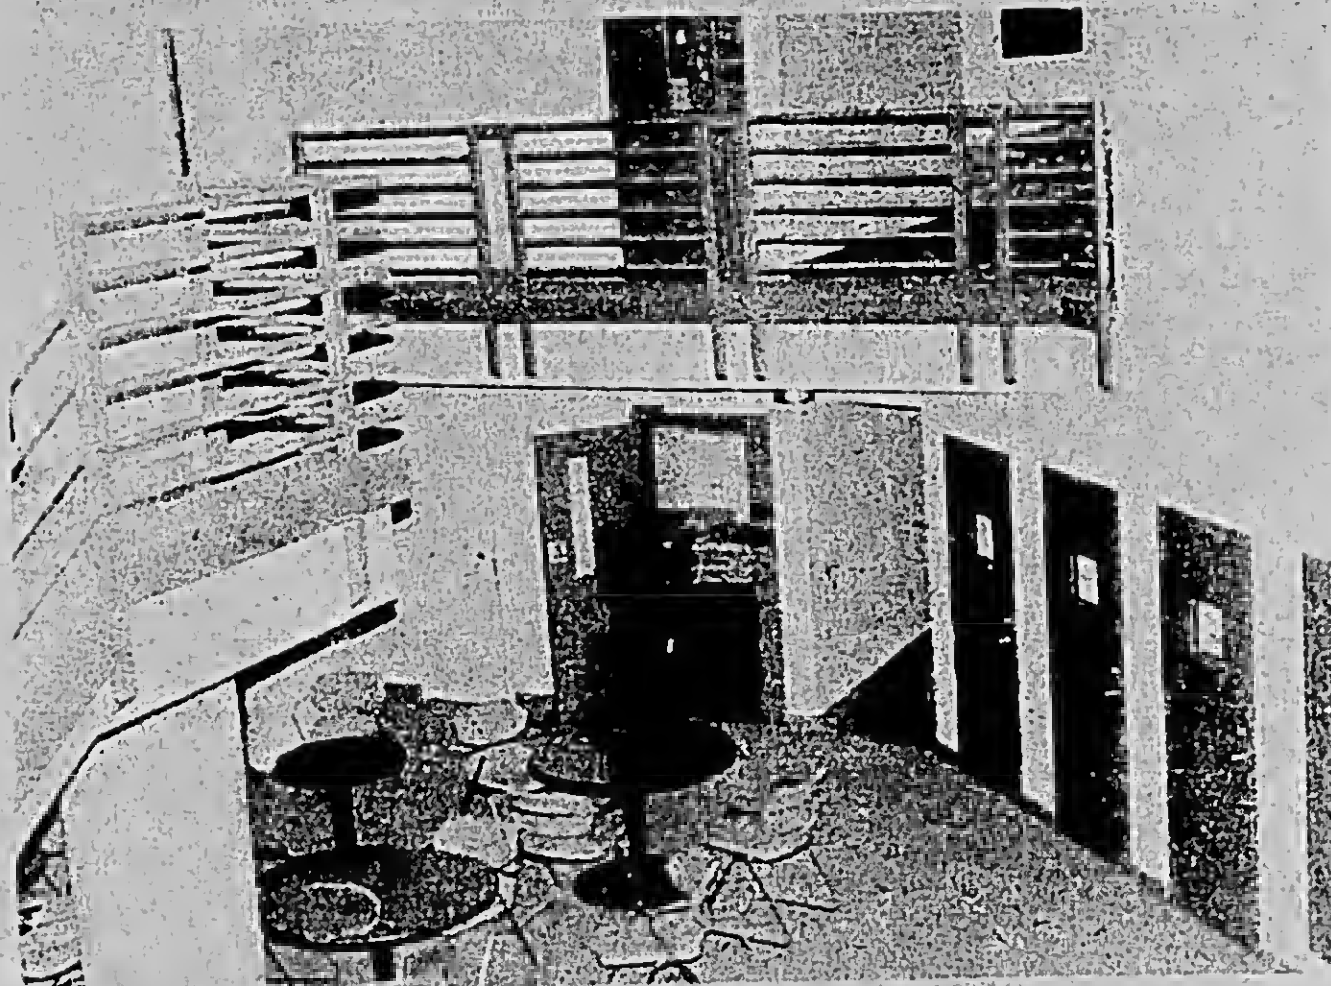

He continued, "The purpose of this facility is to detain our inmates in a safe, humane manner. Sure, they'll have to conform to strict standards, but there are a lot of privileges here for them too. We have a basketball gym, a barber shop, classrooms, a library, an excellent cafeteria facility, carpeting in the pods and a medical wing."

The Courts Annex includes three modernized court rooms and the judges chambers. Sindles indicated that inmates won't have to be transported to the County Building for court proceedings.

"The Sheriff's Administration Offices will provide plenty of space for my staff to operate. The way it is right now, they're climbing over each to get their work done," said Grinnell.

The sheriff said public tours of the new facility will be offered in the near future.

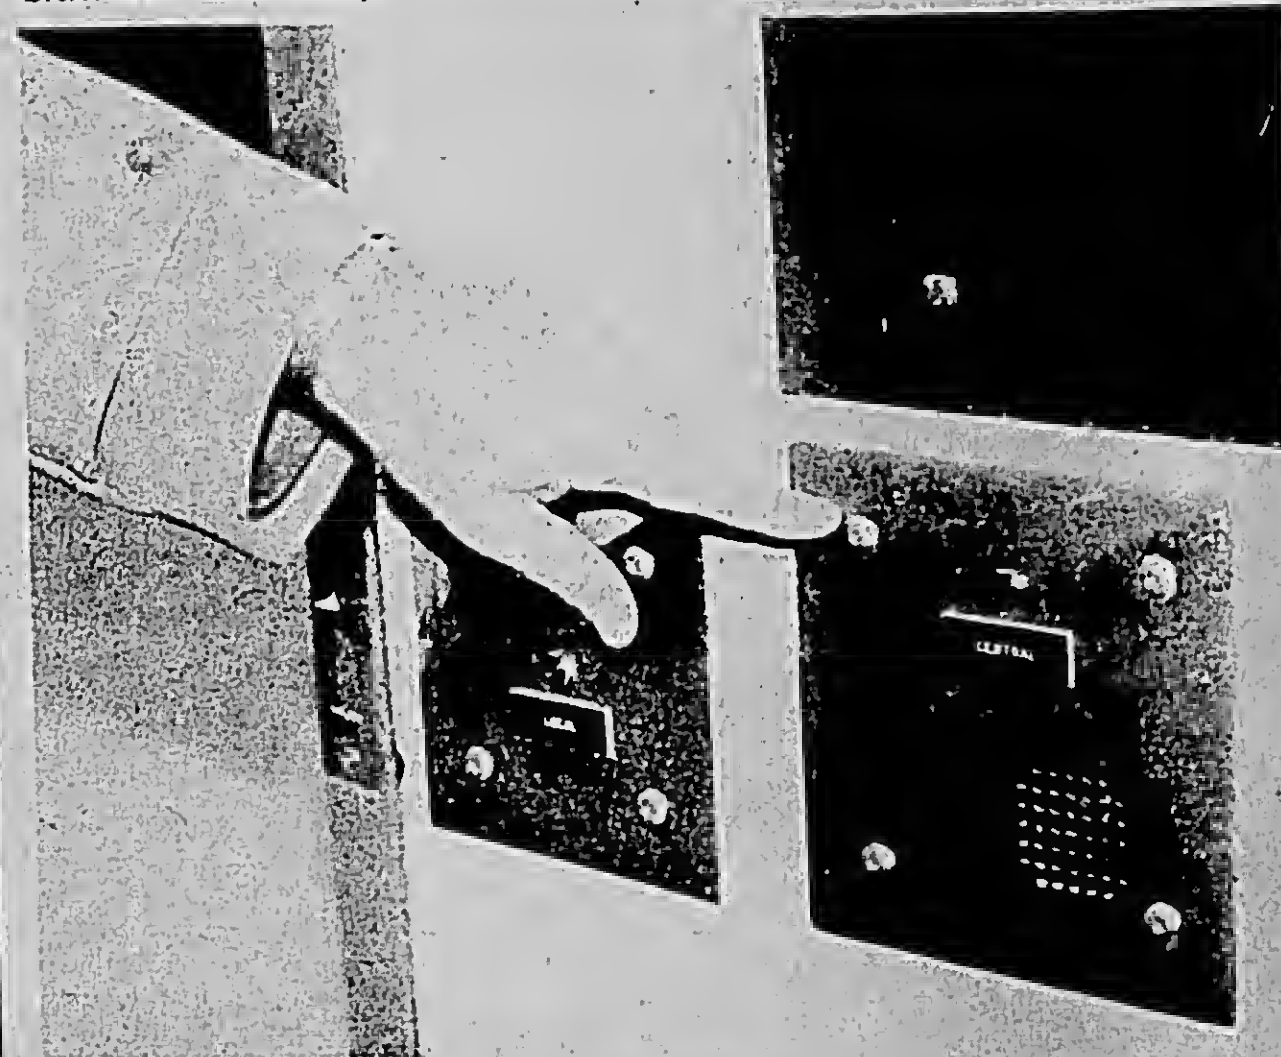

Cellblock pod

Each cellblock pod in the new facility contains two floors, each consisting of individual cells with a window to the outside world. Also, individual shower stalls are located in each pod as are visiting rooms and a carpeted commons area on the lower level.

Central Control

Ed Sindles, deputy superintendent of operations at the new jail, shows where one of Central Control's cameras is located. Central Control is the main security brain of the new facility.

Secure perimeter jail

The main security for the jail is provided by Central Control, which includes cameras throughout the facility and a "security buzzer" at each door. The new facility is known as a "secure perimeter jail."

Coalition to match funds if study thorough: Winfrey

The Coalition for Sound Public Policy praised the Lake County Board's Public Service Committee for earmarking $30,000 towards an economic study on the proposed transportation impact fee ordinance.

The Coalition for Sound Public Policy is an ad hoc group of commercial real estate developers, working with numerous private and public concerns, to help ensure a fair and equitable solution to the controversial impact fee plan.

The study will assess the economic impact on Lake County of a proposed tax on new development to help pay for road improvements stemming from future traffic congestion problems.

"We applaud the County Board for its responsible position and willingness to measure the long-term ramifications of this new tax on Lake County," said Ron Winfrey, chairman of the Coalition and development director for Homart Development Co.

The committee agreed to meet about half the study's cost, with the balance shared among other public and private agencies. Winfrey said the Coalition is offering to match the $30,000, providing the scope of the study is clearly defined.

"We are pleased with the deliberative approach that the Lake County Board is taking on this measure, unlike DuPage which enacted an impact ordinance without fully understanding its implications," Winfrey added.

Winfrey cautioned that impact fees could increase the average taxpayer's bill, especially in school districts where the financial burden of an impact fee could push development into neighboring areas.

The Coalition hopes the study will determine whether new development does in fact pay its fair share. The study should also uncover the economic effects on local government, school districts, social service agencies, homeowners and others who have a stake in the outcome of the proposed ordinance.

The Public Service Committee has voted unanimously to delay action on the proposed impact fee measure for 90 days, to allow time for further research and public hearings on the matter.

Winfrey reiterated the Coalition's concern that the ordinance undergo careful scrutiny and adequate public comment before any final vote.

The Lake County Board of Health has also made its Board of Health Committee appointments.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Lincolnshire

Friedman, Eisenstein, Raemer & Schwartz (FERAS) has announced the opening of a third full-service office in the 300 Tri-State International Building in Lincolnshire. Founded in 1972, FERAS has grown to be the 27th largest local certified public accounting and business consulting firm in the United States. With more than 250 employees, FERAS is a major employer in the greater metropolitan area. FERAS, with its home office in Chicago's Equitable Building, opened its first suburban office in Rolling Meadows in 1982 which now employs nearly 50 people. According to Lewin Friedman, managing partner of the firm, "The counties of Lake and McHenry are two of the fastest growing areas in the region. We already serve several companies in the area and are the auditors for Lake County."

Lake County

A workplace literacy program developed by College of Lake County and Waukegan Public Library for employees of Synnesvedt Nursery in Round Lake is showcased in a videotape produced by the Secretary of State Literacy Office. The tape is the project of the 36-member business and labor literacy advisory committee appointed by Secretary of State Jim Edgar to focus attention on the impact of adult illiteracy in the workplace.

The Synnesvedt Nursery effort is one of seven basic skills programs featured in the production "On the Job: Workplace Literacy." Over the last two years, more than 100 such programs have been established in Illinois offices and plants for nearly 1,000 employees.

Lake Zurich

The Village Square shopping center at Rte. 12 and 22 in Lake Zurich is planned to be the location of one of Sears' new suburban-based goods stores. Negotiations are taking place between Sears and Sfire Development Co., which has been before the plan commission and where board for permission to add another business. Village officials have expressed fear that without a replacement, the shopping center may close. Sears plans also include a 14,000-square-foot addition to its power book store.

Round Lake

The Lake County Development Bank in Round Lake will cash open although the bank is currently under Department of Social Security review. It would operate in Round Lake after the holiday season. A spokesman said that if the bank is not approved, it will have to leave the Round Lake area and move to a new location.

Vernon Hills

First Colonial Bank of Lake County in Vernon Hills has appointed as its senior staff Shirley Brecker, vice president of personal financial services, Daniel Caravella, vice president and controller, and Katherine Mazzocco, vice president of commercial lending. The bank is temporarily located at the Hawthorn Hills Fashion Square, 700 N. Milwaukee Ave. Vernon Hills. In March, the bank will move into its permanent facility at the First Colonial Bank Building at Hawthorn Center at Rte. 60 and Milwaukee Ave.

Govases find move from city to their liking

by JOE WINTER

Restaurateur Bill Govas, whose establishments have been visited by various celebrities, says he is proud that Lake County residents can now dine at a premier restaurant without traveling a long distance.

Govas, who had been a head chef in Chicago, moved here with his family in the mid-1970s. He, along with his wife, Crystal, own the Country Squire restaurant near Grayslake. The Govases, with their son, Gus, also own the Sea Princess restaurant in Libertyville. Gus Govas will marry Aspasia Petropoulos next December, and his future bride also is in the restaurant business, and will join their endeavors.

"We try to give them the best we can for their money," Mr. Govas said. "They don't have to go far away to celebrate a birthday, anniversary, or holiday, such as Christmas."

They have had the Country Squire, which features continental food, since 1977. The former Landings became the Sea Princess under their ownership a half-year ago, and offers, as you might guess, mostly seafood.

"We're really glad we made the move from Chicago to come up here to Lake County," the former chef said.

Govas, 59, has been in the restaurant business since he was 17. He started as a head chef working in Chicago when he was that age, training under experienced chefs from Europe and attending culinary school.

Govas later worked for 18 years at Grassfield's in northern Chicago. "It was elegant," Mrs. Govas said. "It was the place where everyone went," she added, and it was frequented by celebrities, such as the Country Squire has been.

Mrs. Govas was a hostess at Grassfield's for 10 years, at DeLeo's in Chicago for 12 years, and at the Country Squire for the past 13 years.

Their son graduated from Harper College as an honor student in food service management. He has worked in restaurants with his parents since he was 13.

The Country Squire was patterned, in part, after Grassfield's, and they draw customers from long distances away, such as Chicago. Their banquet hall can hold 350 people, and another dining area an additional 275.

The Sea Princess can hold 600 people when space in the cocktail lounge is included.

Mrs. Govas said Country Squire can be an escape from the bustle of the city, and at Christmas has been termed "Fantasyland."

In summer, their 10,000 tulips and daffodils can be viewed with rabbits, foxes and deer occasionally running through the outside area. The interior is elegant, as well, with crystal chandeliers hanging throughout the banquet facility just constructed on the southwest corner, and a winding staircase leading to private bridal suites. Outdoor weddings are one of their more popular events.

While the Country Squire is rather traditional, the decor at the Sea Princess is more modern. The Libertyville restaurant has two beautiful patios, and a lake complete with waterfowl and a fountain with lights.

"When you work hard and make up your mind to do something, you can do it,"

Restaurateurs

Bill and Crystal Govas, shown in lounge area of one of their restaurants, the Country Squire, say Lake County is a great place for them to do business. The Govases, originally from Chicago, also own the Sea Princess in Libertyville.

Govas said, adding that 12- or 14 hour days are not uncommon.

Country Squire is open on Christmas and New Year's and the evenings before both days, Govas said. In fact, Christmas Eve is one of their bigger nights, and Govas says many people make it a point to come to the Country Squire on that evening. He attributes this to the country atmosphere to be found there.

The total number of people employed at both restaurants is 180, almost all of them from Lake County.

The Country Squire originally was the stately residence of Wesley Sears, scion of the Chicago-based mail order firm.

The house was completed in 1938, and was regarded as 10 years ahead of its time in modern conveniences.

The lawn covers 13 acres, and surrounds a 200-year-old horse chestnut tree, and a "good luck" Ginkgo tree imported from China by the Govases.

The original Country Squire restaurant was opened in 1954 by Martin and Edna Giesel, known for their successful Cafe de Paris in Chicago.

Much of the original Sears' home still is intact, and in 1958 the restaurant was expanded by adding a dining porch to the south and east exteriors of the building.

Some of the celebrities having dined at the Country Squire include Carl Sandburg, Marlon Brando, Esther Williams, Barbara Eden, Wolfman Jack and Mike Ditka.

Frank Lloyd Wright once remarked while dining there: "For a place I didn't design, it's a nice joint you have here."

Suggested retail price: $2.95-$3.95 each.

• Card Games: Children love to play cards, and classics like Old Maid and Fish never go out of style, especially when updated with humorous new pictures from Random House, Inc.

Or, for something completely different, kids can sharpen their memories with the Real Mother Goose Card Game, in which players use their matching skills to recognize popular lines of verse. Suggested retail price: $1.95-$2.50 each.

COLORING will never be the same with the Super Crayon Christmas Stocking!

THE FIRST TREES

"Oh, Christmas Tree..." Thousands of years ago people in Egypt, Rome and England decorated trees to celebrate the beginning of winter. But, according to Ranger Rick magazine, it was not until 400 years ago that people in Germany decorated the first trees to celebrate Christmas.

Then, on Christmas day in 1747, some German settlers in Bethlehem, Pa., decorated trees for their children. These were probably the first Christmas trees in America. HL880024

REINDEER FACT

Santa Claus sure knew what he was doing when he chose reindeer to pull his sleigh. While reindeer are quite small—usually around three-and-a-half feet tall—they have great strength.

Origins of the Star of Bethlehem

Star light, star bright: Just what exactly was the Star of Bethlehem? According to National Wildlife magazine, the current leading theory is that the star was a conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn.

When such a conjunction occurs, the two planets sometimes look like one bright star to observers on Earth. Other theories claim the famous orb was a supernova (dying star) or a comet. And, still another theory says the Star of Bethlehem was simply a miracle.

HOLIDAY MAKE-UP TIPS

By Ilana Harkavi

More women wear make-up during the holiday season than at any other time of the year. Since many of them are not accustomed to wearing make-up, there is a tendency to apply either too much color or an overabundance of sparkle. Ilana Harkavi, author of I'll Make You Beautiful (NAL Books) and Creative Director of Il-Makiage, offers the following make-up tips to make your holiday more beautiful:

- ★1) To perk up eyes with telltale lines from too much partying, apply an eye cream beneath the eye area before applying your concealer.
- ★2) To add subtle sparkle to your eyes, apply iridescent pigments to the inner corner of the eye. Your eyes will appear larger and more luminous.
- ★3) For a plumper, more sensual lip, apply a streak of iridescent lipstick down the center of the lips, either beneath or over a matte shade.
- ★4) Iridescent shades are beautiful for the holidays, but also more drying. Use moisturizer over the face and lip balm over lips to hold in moisture.
- ★5) Use face powders with a hint of iridescence to add subtle shine to your holiday face.

- ★6) For just that hint of glitz, apply a thin line of glitter gel as an eyeliner. Use also to highlight hair, shoulders and lips.

- ★7) Carry an all-around make-up kit for quick changes during this party season. A great one is Il-Makiage's I'll Make You Beautiful Kit, complete with brushes, lipstick, mascara, concealer, pencils, and nine shadows and rouges. Retail price: $50.00. Available through mail order at 1-800-722-1011, and at the Il-Makiage salon located at 107 E. 60th St., New York, NY 10022. Phone 212/371-3992. Change your look from office to party in less than five minutes!

For more tips on make-up you can do throughout the year, read I'll Make You Beautiful (NAL Books) by Ilana Harkavi, now available in paperback at bookstores. Make-up artist to such luminaries as Diana Ross and Cher, Ilana Harkavi shares her knowledge of make-up techniques and trends through an easy to read text complete with color photos and specific illustrations.

SPORTS

SCOUTING REPORT

Grayslake at Round Lake

Date: Dec. 16.
Game time: 7:30 p.m.
Location: Round Lake High School.
Team records: both 2-0 in Northwest Suburban Conference; Grayslake is 5-2 overall, Round Lake, 3-3.

Keys to game: throw away the records when these two rivals play. One of the better rivalries in Lake County prep basketball, the Round Lake gym should be particularly packed for this one. The Panthers have served notice that while they are young, they will not give up their NWSC title easily. Round Lake has been led in scoring by a number of different players. Scott Hall, Rick Haines, Taylor Fiene have all contributed major point totals. Grayslake, of course, is led by a now healthy Timm West. West scored 22 points but perhaps more importantly, demonstrated he is now a complete player by dishing off six assists against Marian Central. Grayslake guards Tim Hough and Jim Neuman will be counted on to work against Round Lake's 1-3-1 trapping defense.

Prediction: although Panthers will not make it easy, Grayslake takes major step in its title run with three-point win.

Johnsburg at Lake Zurich

Mundelein at Stevenson
Date: Dec. 16.
Location: Stevenson Sports Center, Prairie View

Game time: 7:30 p.m.
Team records: Mundelein 1-5, 0-3 in North Suburban Conference; Stevenson, 3-3, 1-2 in NSC.

Keys to game: Stevenson will once again have a full lineup as Chris Holder and Cliff King return against the Mustangs. Cleveland Tyson is coming off a weekend which was highlighted by a game-high 18 points against Warren. Mundelein features guard Jason Rundall and forward Tim Ulrich. Both teams will be looking for their first North Suburban Conference win and confidence before Christmas tournaments.

Prediction: Stevenson by three.

Marian Central at Grant

Johnsburg at Lake Zurich
Date: Dec. 16.

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Location: Lake Zurich High School.

Team records: Lake Zurich 2-6 overall, 0-2 in Northwest Suburban Conference; Johnsburg 2-3, 0-2 in NWSC.

Keys to game: the NWSC version of the Mundelein-Stevenson battle, both teams need a win. Johnsburg is led by senior Trevor Hart in scoring but must find consistent scorers from other spots.

Prediction: Lake Zurich by two.

Mundelein at Stevenson

Date: Dec. 16

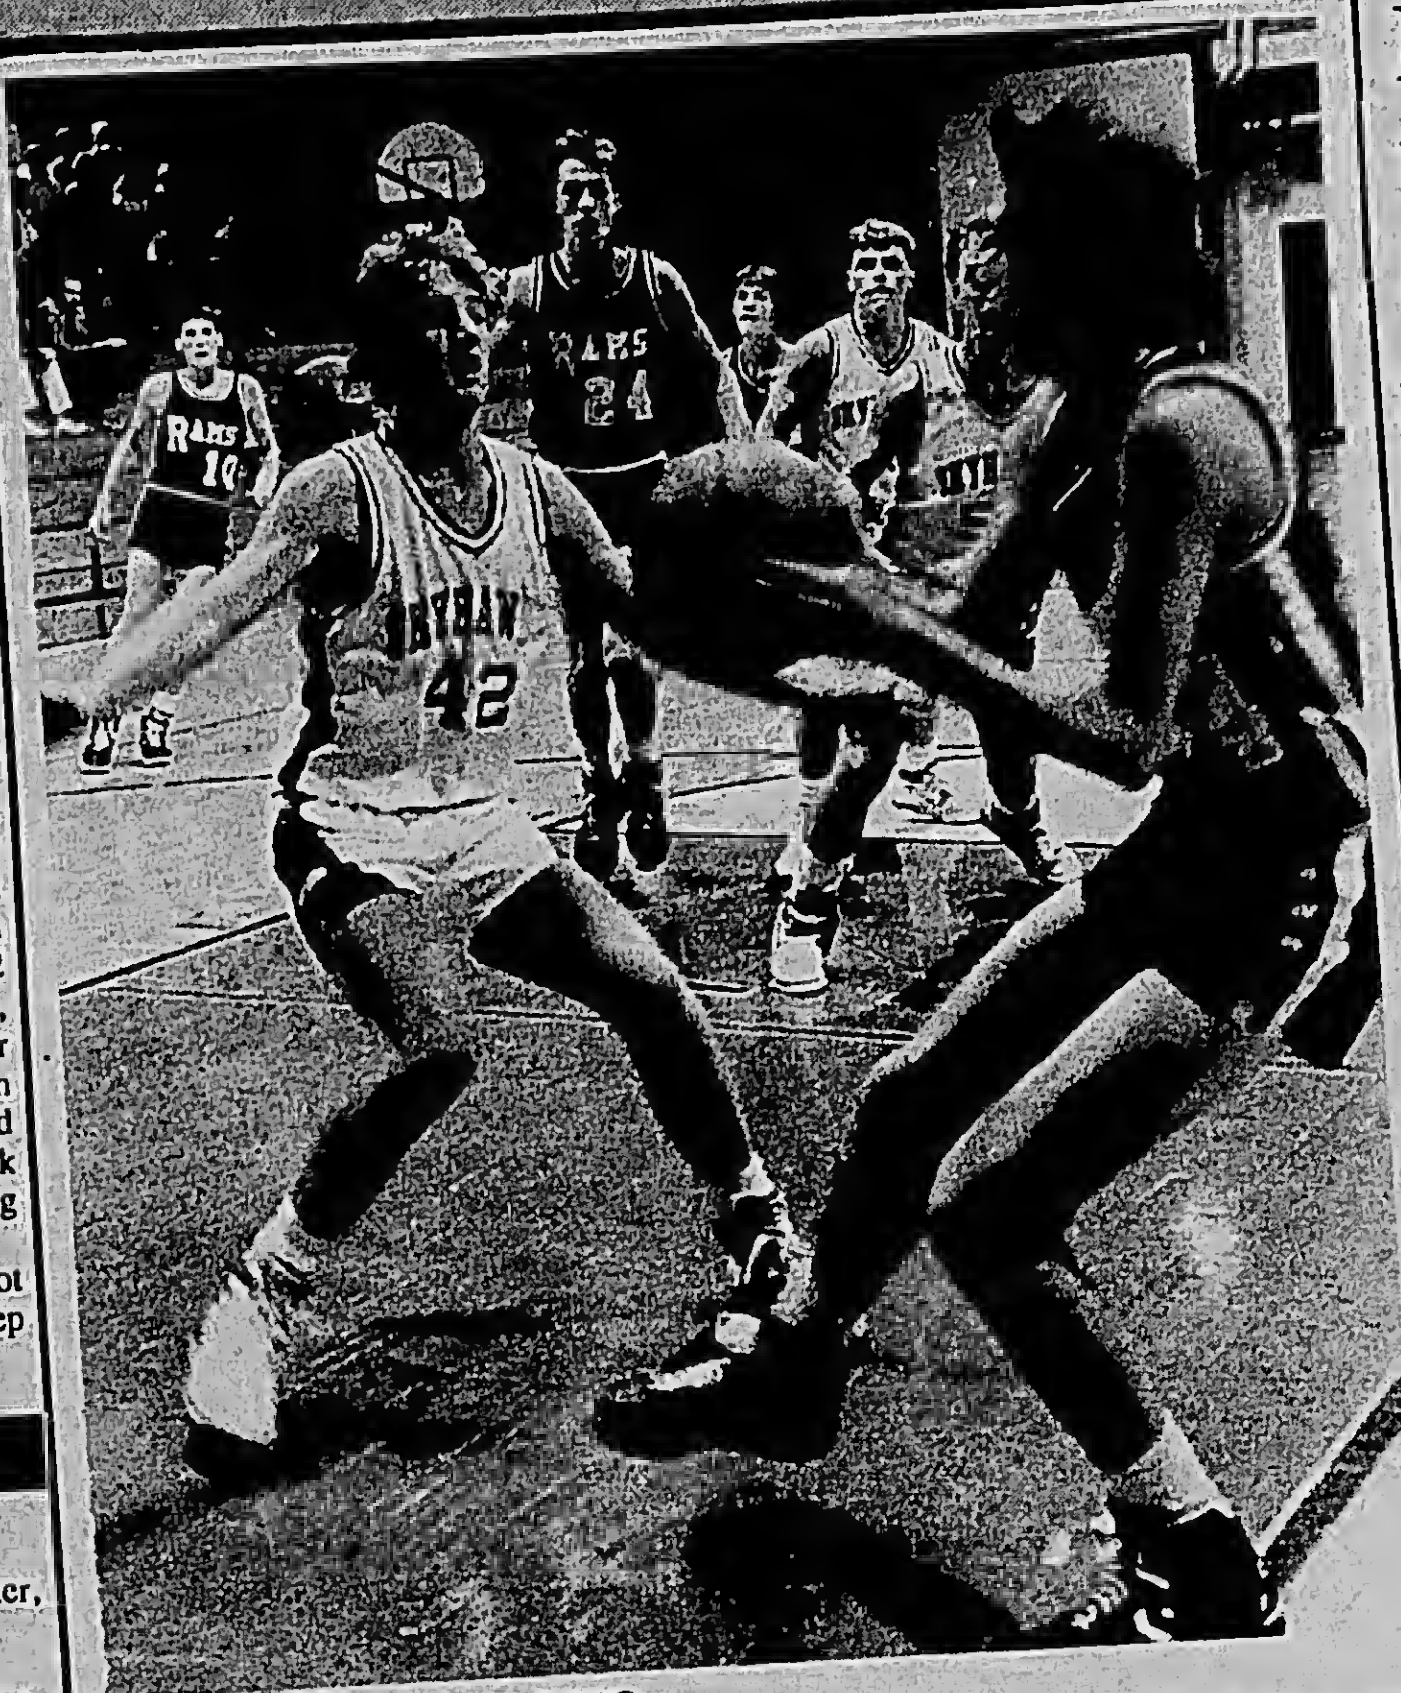

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Location: Grant Community High School in Fox Lake.

Team records: Grant 2-4 (1-1 in conference) and Marian Central 3-3 (1-1 in conference).

Keys to the game: Grant is coming off a split weekend after defeating Wauconda on Friday and losing to McHenry on Saturday. Marian is coming off a disastrous weekend, losing twice to Harvard and Northwest Suburban Conference foe Grayslake. The key to this game is how well Marian Central can bounce back from last weekend.

Prediction: Grant by five

Baseline move

Grayslake's Corey Knigge finds his baseline move stopped by Johnsburg's Trevor Hart in Northwest Suburban Conference game at Johnsburg. Grayslake's Craig Katzenmaier and Tim Hough battle for position along with Skyhawks' John Olson. Grayslake is at Round Lake and Johnsburg travels to Lake Zurich in NWSC games Dec. 16.

Carmel's comeback efforts fall short in overtime defeat

Things don't get any easier for the Carmel boys basketball team.

The Corsairs, after games against Marist and Holy Cross in a five-day stretch, complete a tough week one of the East Suburban Catholic Conference season when it travels to St. Joseph of Westchester to tackle the annual ESCC power Dec. 16.

The Corsairs were the only team to hand St. Joseph a league loss last year and Coach Scott Rosberg's crew would dearly love to repeat that accomplishment.

In the first game of the series against the league's "Big Three" - Rosberg considered Holy Cross to be the darkhorse in the pre-season predictions - Carmel just missed a chance to pull an upset as CHS fell 59-56 to Marist in Mundelein.

Free-throw shooting was the difference - lack of it for Carmel and near perfection for the visiting Redskins.

In fact, it was at times hard to tell who had the home-court advantage. Marist did not score a field goal in the overtime session, but it did not have to - that's what 11 straight good free-throws will do for a team.

Bob Dombrowski, who had made just one of two previous tries, canned six in the extra three minutes and Mike Nolan had five to lead Carmel. Carmel's fans tried to distract them, as some switched sides of the gymnasium. But the Redskins were cool under pressure.

While free-throw shooting carried Marist to the away win, it was a main reason for Carmel's troubles. Carmel was outscored 18-8 from the free-throw line.

"Free-throw shooting is nothing more than getting the same rhythm," Rosberg said.

The defeat, which was Carmel's third straight and dropped the Corsairs to 2-3, 0-2 in the ESCC, spoiled a solid showing by senior guard Chris Mikrut. Mikrut scored 19 points.

"It hurt to see him go in overtime. He does so many things for us. He is such a leader, too," Rosberg said.

Carmel trailed Marist 36-29 midway through the third period before the Corsairs called on a tenacious pressing defense to gain a tie going into the fourth quarter.

"I just thought the kids played the press the way they had to and I imagine that they were used to our man-to-man pressure. We had used that for four games

Knights tourney nears

Grade school basketball will occupy center stage when the Knights of Columbus Precious Blood Council No. 9689 will host a basketball tournament beginning Dec. 17.

The Knights tournament - the 34 Annual Mid-Season Basketball and Cheerleading championships will be a three-day event this year concluding on Dec. 19. The major change from the first two years will be the site of the tournament as College of Lake County's physical education center.

The most prestigious trophy and what the tournament is based on is the Precious Blood Council Pride and School Spirit Award. This will be awarded to the school that has its team, cheerleaders, and fans exemplify the highest extreme of moral and ethical standards of prided and school spirit during the entire event.

In 1987, 674 students from 16 Catholic grade schools participated.

Games the first day begin at 9 a.m. with St. Johns battling Our Lady of Humility. The schedule for the remainder of the first round will be: Prince of Peace vs. Immaculate Conception, 10 a.m.; St. Annastasia vs. Immaculate Conception, 11 a.m.; St. Beede vs. St. Annes, 1 p.m.; St. Patricks vs. St. Peter, 1 p.m.; St. James vs. St. Gilbert, 2 p.m.; Santa Maria vs. Transfiguration, 3 p.m. and Montini vs. St. Mary of Fremont, 4 p.m.

The winners will advance to the second round games Dec. 18.

The cheerleading competition will begin at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 19.

and we went to a zone press tonight more. I thought the kids were able to get to their spots well and set good traps. We mixed it up all night long. That was our game plan," Rosberg said.

Mikrut had two baskets in that stretch, the latter giving Carmel a 36-36 tie. A hoop by Randy Bierman, who had 12 points, tied it at 38 after three.

Carmel gained a 48-44 lead midway through the fourth period on an outside jumper by Ken Moreano.

But Marist's Tim Adams, who led all scorers with 20 points, tied the contest with 1:50 left.

A key foul on Mikrut to start the overtime began Marist's parade to the free-throw line.

Panther Lifters hold powerlift invitational

Round Lake Senior High School will be hosting a powerlifting contest March 4, 1989, for Lake and McHenry County high schools.

The contest is being sponsored by Round Lake High School's four-year-old Strength and Conditioning Program. "A well run, well supervised strength and conditioning program is essential for improved athletic performance," said Rob Rummel, Round Lake's strength and conditioning coach. "We also provide ample opportunity for any student to participate in a safe and well organized program which is specific to their needs," Rummel added.

"During December we will be sending information to every high school in Lake County and many in McHenry County. We hope to have a great turn-out," Rummel said.

Rummel, a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Ass'n. said that the powerlifting contest will be their biggest activity.

A seminar on body building and nutrition, featuring area body builders, will also be held during December.

The Panther Lifters weightroom, one of the best in Lake County, Rummel said, is currently being used by winter sports teams, as well as physical education classes.

"We are very pleased that our facility is in use during the entire school day. It really says a lot about the commitment of our faculty, staff, and students," Rummel concluded.

Family YMCA offers youth, adult sessions

The Lake Co. Family YMCA is offering its second annual Begin-to-Swim campaign.

Children three-14 years and adults 15 and older are invited to register for this five-day program. Classes are offered in the morning and the early evening for your convenience. Children will receive daily lesson plans which include some "homework", the next day's plans, and some history of the YMCA movement.

The program is a YMCA of the U.S.A. program, developed to share the wealth of knowledge of YMCA instructors and to introduce those who are interested in swimming, but have never followed that dream. The Begin-to-Swim program is designed for non-swimmers or beginner swimmers.

Classes are kept small to facilitate learning. Registration is required for the Begin-to-Swim program, so sign up early because space is limited. Because this is a free program, the Gurnee/Waukegan Rotary Breakfast Club is sponsoring the program. Call the Lake Co. Family YMCA at (312)360-YMCA, or visit the 2000 Western Ave. location in Waukegan.

Rivals Grayslake, Round Lake in showdown test

By STEVE PETERSON

In any class, a teacher will usually have lessons, then tests and, then give the examinations.

The Northwest Suburban Conference basketball courts are no different than your ordinary classroom.

As far as Grayslake's boys basketball team is concerned, the biggest test so far will come Dec. 16 when they travel to Round Lake. The game time between these two fierce rivals is 7:30 p.m.

"It's important for us to win this game. If we are going to win this conference, we will have to win the first half," Grayslake Coach Greg Groth said.

The Rams were picked to contend for the NWSC title this year and so far have done nothing to disprove that prediction. Grayslake started the season by winning the Johnsburg Thanksgiving tournament and has won five of the first seven games.

What's more, Timm West is back. An ankle injury forced West to miss four games, but he came back to score 22 points in Grayslake's 56-43 win over Marian Central last week.

Groth, though, is by no means looking past Round Lake. Despite a youthful team with little experience off last year's team, the Panthers have won their first two NWSC games to start their title defense on the right foot. The Panthers, 3-3 overall, topped Lake Zurich 64-58 in an away win last week.

History, though, is on Round Lake's side. Last year the Panthers beat the Rams twice in NWSC play to keep Grayslake from claiming the title.

Round Lake will have to contend not only with West's scoring ability but also his newfound guard-like talent - he had six assists against Marian Central.

Tim Hough and Jim Neuman picked up the slack during West's absence and Steve Grundum also has turned in solid performances.

Round Lake Coach Bob Ward, before the season started, wondered who, if anybody, would be the leading scorer. Scores such as a 72-35 blowout at the hands of McHenry furthered those questions.

But last week, the Panthers answered that they will have a multi-faceted attack this year.

"It seems they have a different leading scorer each game," Groth said.

Against the Bears, Scott Hall, a 6-6 junior center, had 18 points to lead the way. Rick Haines contributed a solid 15 points and Mark Dittmer had 12.

"We're approaching this game the way we have been all along. That is to show improvement each game. We've been improving and that's what we're looking to do. I'm pleased with the progress," Ward said.

The Rams showed they could come from behind against the Hurricanes.

The home team trailed 13-8 after one as MC stated the game with a 9-0 spurt.

That's when West entered the game. Groth said West did not start because he did not feel any of the five starters should be replaced.

An 18-10 second-quarter run put Grayslake ahead to stay. Marian Central tried to rally in the third quarter but a 17-6 Grayslake fourth quarter sealed the win.

Baskets by Gary Hook and West in the final 20 seconds made the final margin seem longer than the game indicated.

Round Lake, meanwhile, was using its best defensive weapon, the 1-3-1 trap to pull away from Lake Zurich. Lake Zurich trailed 35-26 at halftime, but the Bears countered with three pointers and cut the lead to four in the second half.

Lancer women to regroup

College of Lake County's women's basketball team will be taking the next two weeks off in order to try and regroup following a rough start.

The Lancers fell to Highland 74-44 last week, their sixth straight loss. CLC does not play again until it begins Skyway Conference play by hosting McHenry Jan. 3.

"Highland had an effective full-court press and we were down 19-1 to start the game," CLC Coach Don Zeman said.

CLC trailed 34-10 at halftime.

Zion, Carmel tops in league

Zion-Benton and Carmel are on top of the Northern Illinois Hockey League standings with 3-0-0 records and six points.

Zion defeated Lake Forest Academy 6-4, Antioch 19-0, Crystal Lake Central, 1-1-0; Cary, Grove, 1-3-0; Lake Forest Academy, 0-2-0; and Antioch, 0-3-0.

The remaining teams in the league and their records include: Graylake, 2-2-0; Crystal Lake South, 1-0-0.

CLC men bring surprises

College of Lake County's mens basketball team will be seeking to dish out some early Christmas surprises when the Lancers travel to Highland's tournament this weekend.

"We're going over there thinking that we have played some awful good teams so far and if we can get a few people shooting better, we can surprise some people," CLC Coach Bruce Smith said.

So far, the 1988 portion of the schedule has been a frustrating one as the Lancers have lost eight of 11 games. After the journey to Freeport Dec. 16 and 17, CLC is off until the Skyway Conference opener against McHenry Jan. 3.

CLC will begin the tournament at 3 p.m. Dec. 16 with a game against Rock Valley. The Lancers and Rock Valley should be well acquainted with one another's strategies, as the Lancers upended RV 71-63 in overtime in Grayslake.

Depending on how the Lancers fare in the first round, they will play either at 9 or 11 a.m. Dec. 17. One win in the first two games would either pit them in the consolation bracket at 5 p.m., the third place game at 7 p.m. or the title game at 9 p.m.

CLC lost two games last week, 95-74 at Moraine Valley which was preceded by 101-89 loss at Olive-Harvey.

In the Moraine Valley game, the Lancers' wake-up call was a little late for both halves. The visitors were outscored 14-0 to start the game. CLC recovered but that was enough for a comfortable 44-30 halftime margin.

CHS hosts tourney

Carmel High School will host a girls basketball classic on Dec. 26, 27 and 28. Grayslake, Waukegan East and Lake Zurich will join the Corsairs in the tournament.

Two games will be played each evening with the early game beginning at 6 p.m. and the later game at 8 p.m.

On Dec. 26, Waukegan East will square off against Grayslake to begin the tournament at 6 p.m. Lake Zurich will battle Carmel in the nightcap.

On Dec. 27, Grayslake and Lake Zurich will meet in a clash of Northwest Suburban Conference teams at 6 p.m. with Carmel battling Waukegan East at 8 p.m.

Job forecast looks great Marriage Licenses

Waukegan/Lake County area employers anticipate a strengthening job market for the first three months of 1989, according to results of the latest Employment Outlook Survey from Manpower, Inc.

First quarter survey results show 30 percent of the area employers polled are planning to increase staff size, 13 percent expecting to downsize staff and 50 percent maintaining current personnel levels. The remaining 7 percent unsure of hiring plans.

Chuck Bartels, owner of Manpower's Waukegan/Lake County area operations, observed that hiring momentum traditionally slows in the first quarter reporting period. "The job market situation here indicates a recovery from an unusually slow fourth quarter.

Three months ago, 17 percent of those responding intended to enlarge staff and 13 percent anticipated job cutbacks. Last year, 30 percent forecast new hiring while 13 percent expected some staff depletion."

Nationwide, the new employment picture is more moderate, as 22 percent of the nearly 14,000 firms surveyed report staff expansion plans and 11 percent foresee declining workforce levels. Here in the midwest, 22 percent plan to step up hiring activity while 13 percent predict staff curtailment.

WINTERIZE THE FEET
Cold weather calls for special attention to the feet.
Choose foot wear and hose that will keep the feet warm and dry. If the feet become wet, change shoes and hose as soon as possible.

Cold combined with winter dryness often causes deep skin cracks of the heel. Regular use of a moisturizing lotion helps to keep the skin soft.
Injuries caused by slipping or tripping on wet or icy surfaces should get prompt professional attention. Delay can worsen the damage.

Exposure to cold weather can reduce blood flow to the feet. This is a serious matter for those with circulation problems, especially diabetics. If a toe or foot turns blue, or if tingling or numbness develop, see the podiatrist immediately. Diabetics with diminished sensitivity to heat and cold should avoid exposure to frigid temperatures.

Job forecast looks great Marriage Licenses

Waukegan/Lake County area employers anticipate a strengthening job market for the first three months of 1989, according to results of the latest Employment Outlook Survey from Manpower, Inc.

First quarter survey results show 30 percent of the area employers polled are planning to increase staff size, 13 percent expecting to downsize staff and 50 percent maintaining current personnel levels. The remaining 7 percent unsure of hiring plans.

Chuck Bartels, owner of Manpower's Waukegan/Lake County area operations, observed that hiring momentum traditionally slows in the first quarter reporting period. "The job market situation here indicates a recovery from an unusually slow fourth quarter.

Three months ago, 17 percent of those responding intended to enlarge staff and 13 percent anticipated job cutbacks. Last year, 30 percent forecast new hiring while 13 percent expected some staff depletion."

Nationwide, the new employment picture is more moderate, as 22 percent of the nearly 14,000 firms surveyed report staff expansion plans and 11 percent foresee declining workforce levels. Here in the midwest, 22 percent plan to step up hiring activity while 13 percent predict

BIO-TECHNOLOGY BREAKTHROUGH!

ELIMINATE SEPTIC TROUBLES FOREVER!

On a regular basis homeowners shock their septic systems with wastes such as detergents, fats and grease. This upsets the delicate balance of "friendly" bacteria needed to breakdown paper, cotton, sludge and other organic matter and renders the bacteria inactive.

When the "friendly" bacteria stop working, your septic system no longer liquefies the solid wastes constantly flowing into your tank and drain field.

Odors develop! Your tank overflows!
 Your system backs-up! You're In Septic Distress!

WHAT IS "SEPTIC DISTRESS"?

Septic Distress is how you feel when you must fix one or more of the following, costly and untimely problems:

- Septic system overflows.
- Sewage system backups into your home or business.
- Expensive pump outs.
- Costly drain field excavations and hauling.
- Foul odors & noxious fumes.

SEPTICARE SOLVES SEPTIC DISTRESS!

SEPTICARE replaces and assists the "friendly" bacteria that have been destroyed by ordinary use of household detergents, cleansers and grease. When used regularly, SEPTICARE prevents system clogging and assures proper, long-term operation. You'll never need expensive pump-outs or drain field excavations. Overflows and foul smells are a thing of the past, and peace of mind is yours forever.

SEPTICARE:
 Stops the threat of odors before they begin.
 Guarantees to decompose fats, grease, detergents, paper, cotton, sludge & other organic matter.
 Prevents backup & overflow.
 Dissolves, digests & liquefies all organic waste matter.
 Is a natural biodegradable enzyme producing bacteria.

Tree hikes show survival tactics

An outdoor program on trees will be held at the Edward L. Ryerson Conservation Area in Deerfield on Saturday, Dec. 17. Beginning at the Visitors Center at 10 a.m., naturalist Sarah Scharnoski will lead a leisurely walk along the trails, while interpreting a variety of tree species. Trees' adaptations for winter survival will be highlighted and the group will learn to identify the leafless trees from bark and twigs alone.

"Some of these species have incredible adaptations," said Scharnoski. "For instance, one reason sugar maples are so common here is that the young ones can live in deep shade. Most other species can't. These maple saplings can go for decades waiting for a large tree above them to die or fall over. Then they take advantage of the extra light and shoot for the forest canopy."

The program is for adults and teenagers. For reservations call (312) 948-7750. The fee is 50 cents for Lake County residents and $1 for non-residents. This program is sponsored by the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist.

Omni's super opening

Omni Superstore's grand opening in Round Lake Beach's Mallard Creek Shopping Center burst upon the Round Lake Area shopping scene in grand style with overflowing counters of prime produce, a deli case filled with ready-made delicacies and boasting over 200 different varieties of domestic and imported cheeses. Then there were the rows upon rows of shelves stocked to the ceiling with grocery items, which included a generic section. The superstore, among its many sections, included a jewelry counter, liquor section with displays of case lots. The invitation-only grand opening saw a variety of Avon Township and Round Lake Beach officials; Sup. Norman Geary, Clerk Virginia Harrington, Mayor Carl Schimpf, Round Lake Area Fire Chief Paul Maplethorpe, State Rep. Bob Churchill(R)Lake Villa, all hosted by Mr. DiMatteo, Jr., chairman of Dominick's, parent of Omni Superstores. The store's 76,000 sq. ft. also includes a pharmacy, as well as perfume, cosmetic, camera, houseware, hardware and glassware sections. The store opened to the public at 7 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 14, never to close its doors, operating around the clock. Inside the store is also a St. Paul Federal Bank, which offers "financial transactions handled confidentially and efficiently through the St. Paul banking network." Drakes gets wish, moves to Round Lake Community

BY IRIS MAYFIELD

"We have a lot of parking here we've never had before. We've always had a large clientele in Round Lake. We've wanted to move here for a longtime," said Steve Drake, one of the owners of Drake's Office Supply, at the store's grand opening.

Along with co-owners Steve and Carol Drake and Dorothy Ervin, are eight other employees: three from the Round Lake Area, who keep things running efficiently in the new store located at the west end of the Round Lake Commons. "We've been in business for 28 years in Fox Lake as Fox Lake Office Supply," Steve Drake said. "This is a much larger store and allows us to carry a lot more merchandise; expanded product lines, furniture, and display it a lot more effectively. We carry more of everything, more of a variety," he said.

"Rather than have two small stores, we thought we'd have one large one. Also, the two areas are only ten minutes apart. It's a wiser move to have one large store," he reiterated.

Store hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, and closed Sunday.

Drake's grand opening

Mayor will retire

LAKE ZURICH—Mayor Kenneth McGill, 53, who has held the office since 1981, has announced he will not seek reelection in the spring. After serving eight years as a village trustee, 10 years on the first village park board and 25 years on the fire department, seven of them as chief, McGill said he now wants to devote some time to his family. He and his wife eventually plan to move to a 10-acre retreat near Tomahawk, Wis., where he plans to build a new home.

Ask grade school

ISLAND LAKE—Mayor Charles Amrich and trustees were expected to attend en masse this week's board meeting of Wauconda School Dist. 118 to demand an agreement on school impact fees. The village board will collect and hold the fees and will be released to the school district only if a grade school is constructed in Island Lake. Otherwise, the fees will be used for local park purposes. Impact fees will be collected for the first time in 1989 for a 285-home subdivision known as Greenleaf Meadows.

Library talk

NORTH CHICAGO ---North Chicago City Council finance committee members discussed the future finances for the new city library Monday. Library officials were urged to raise their fees and fines in order to create more revenue. The new library, to be built next to North Chicago City Hall, is expected to be finished next summer.

Shopping center

GRAYSLAKE ---Grayslake Village Board members are expected to consider plans by developer Esper Petersen for a shopping center when they meet Dec. 19. Country Faire Plaza won a favorable recommendation from the Grayslake Plan Commission. The shopping center would be located at the intersection of Rtes. 45 and 120.

Depke wins award

WARREN TWP. ---Warren Twp. Supv. Bob Depke became only the second township supervisor to win the Township Officials of Illinois Presidents Award. Depke was presented at the TOI conference in Peoria. Prior recipients of the award have included former Sen. Charles Percy and Illinois Senate President Phil Rock.

McRae ends tenure

MUNDELEIN---Mayor Colin McRae has announced that he will not seek a fourth term, and the next day Trustee Richard Starkey threw his hat into the ring, running with the Mundelein First Party along with Trustees Ralph Rohling, Gerard Howland and Patrick Wilson.

Rte. 53 resolution

LIBERTYVILLE TWP.---The proposed extension of Rte. 53 is shaping up as an issue where most all of the municipalities in southern Lake County are taking a stand, and now the Libertyville Twp. Board has passed a resolution opposing the project. Already on record as opposing the project were Long Grove, Hawthorn Woods and Mundelein, three communities through which the extension would run. Several county municipalities, including Vernon Hills, Libertyville and Wauconda, are lobbying for the extension.

Drainage at issue

VERNON HILLS---Representatives of Her Investments were directed to have their engineer meet with Vernon Hills officials after the village board tabled a request involving Villas by the Lake. At issue were drainage problems with a lake adjacent to the platted area, and the concern by trustees that the development might make this problem worse. Officials of the firm are confident that the matter can be resolved.

Ponder tax hike

GAGES LAKE---Woodland Dist. 50 Board of Education has called a special meeting for 6:30 p.m. on Dec. 19 to discuss a possible tax referendum in February. Woodland's attempt for a tax increase failed in November. The meeting will be held in the district's Central offices located in Woodland Elementary School.

Lakeland Newspapers

Lake County At A Glance

OK referendum

GURNEE---Gurnee Dist. 56 voters will be considering two tax hike requests from Dist. 56 on the Feb. 28 ballot. The board of education Tuesday approved resolutions seeking a 65 cents per $100 increase in assessed valuation for the educational fund and 20 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for the building fund. The building fund increase would go towards the construction of a new school building. According to a report prepared by the public school division of LaSalle National Bank, the district can expect 480-500 more students in the next three years because of growth.

Teens are heard

LINDENHURST---Community leaders and the Park Dist. are pulling together to stage a teenage dance Friday night at the Trinity United Methodist Church. This is expected to be the first of many such activities for which teens have pleaded in two appearances before the Park Dist. and two well-attended village board meetings.

Improvement plan finds all objectives reached

by JOE WINTER

The School Improvement Plan for Hawthorn School Dist. 73 shows assessment results for all listed objectives were at or above expectations.

The plan refers to Hawthorn South School, grade three, Hawthorn Half Day School, grade six, and Hawthorn Junior High School, grade eight.

Even though expectations were reached, activities have been developed to improve the reading program in the schools.

Activities are district-based and will be implemented in all buildings at all grade levels.

Activities and timetables are:

--Offering Teacher Expectation and Student Achievement (TESA) workshops for staff, September, 1988, through June, 1990;

--Completing the implementation of a newly-adopted textbook program,

September, 1987, through September, 1989;

--Reviewing the California Objective Performance Index and corresponding test items to determine weak areas, and assist teachers in developing teaching strategies that will improve performance, November, 1988, through, February, 1989; and,

--The reading committee will review methods of evaluation of the plan objectives to determine if revision is appropriate.

Also cited was reporting of the District Assessment of Reading, which is being sent home via "The Friday Flyer," which is a district publication sent home each Friday with the youngest child in each family.

College schedules excursion

When the advanced Swedish class at McHenry County College was cancelled, some of the students were not content to just quit. The decision was made to keep meeting in private homes and practice with the help of a few Swedish residents in the area.

Now, two years later, the Swedish Breakfast Club (they meet on Saturday mornings) have organized a trip of Sweden with one and two day visits to Denmark, Norway, and Germany.

Many projects on tap for next year in Grayslake

Grayslake Mayor Edwin Schroeder has announced the capital improvement projects on tap for the Village of Grayslake in 1989.

Projects to begin next year include:
 --Commuter parking spaces for Metra will increase from 161 to 229. Cost will be taken care of by a Metra grant.
 --Second Ave. will be resurfaced at an estimated cost of $40,000.
 --Rte. 83 will be widened at Center St. Left-turn lanes will be created and the village's last sanitary lift station will be eliminated. Estimated cost of this project is $850,000, but the State of Illinois will pay for $800,000 of it.

 --The water main on Britain Ave. will be replaced and extended at a cost of $80,000.

--Engineering phases one and two for reworking Atkinson Rd. at a cost of $90,000 will be completed.

--Storm sewers will be installed on Heather/Laurel Terrace, Pierce Crt. and Kenilworth St. at a cost of $200,000.

--Lincoln Ave., from Washington Ave. to Jackson St., will be reconstructed. This project will be funded by motor fuel tax dollars and developer fees.

Insurance costs zoom out of sight in village

Lindenhurst is wrestling with a health insurance problem. It began last summer when Blue Cross-Blue Shield raised the rates on its coverage almost 75 percent.

When new bids were solicited, Time Insurance Co. of Milwaukee came in with the lowest price. But that was easier talked about than practiced.

Lindenhurst's 20-some covered employees voted for the Time Insurance plan. It was finally put into effect in November.

The insurer balked and increased the cost of some coverages. This happened when it was discovered some employees or their dependents had pre-existing conditions.

Then, the village got its first bill. It listed the coverage and cost by individual, from the youngest to the oldest. Premiums for some employees are relatively low due to their age and medical history. Others are "out of sight," by admission of some village trustees studying the plan.

They are trying to decide whether employees should be assessed the excess cost of what is normally paid by the village or averaged, as is now done. Until Jan. 1 or whenever the village board decides, all employees will share the total cost of the plan along with the village.

When it comes time to find a new carrier or rates for the current plan increase, the board may have to review the issue again.

WEEKEND/LEISURE

and FOCUS ON FEATURES

Check It Out!

by GLORIA DAVIS

See 'Naked Gun'

Anyone who likes movies of the ilk of the first "Airplane," should put "The Naked Gun" at the top of their holiday movies-to-see list.

Leslie Nielsen, who graduated from leading-man type roles on early television, to playing great character roles for both tv and the movies, is hysterical in the role of Lt. Frank Drebin, LAPD.

Drebin is a carryover from Nielsen's short-lived, but wonderful tv series, "Police Squad," and the unusual twist here is that what didn't do too well on television, should be a smash hit on the big screen.

The nonsensical opening scene that has Nielsen bursting into a meeting of all of the biggest "bad guys" of the 1980s, starts up a bizarrely funny police romp in which such familiar faces as Priscilla Presley, Ricardo Montalban, George Kennedy and O. J. Simpson show up.

Simpson's cameo appearances have him with few lines, but starring in the most uproarious scenes in an entire flick full of uproarious scenes.

The comedy is absurd, a fresh relief in these days when the hard realistic films can just get a little too heavy to take. 4 — STARS.

Bad never looked quite this good

"Tequila Sunrise," can't help but be one of the holiday season's biggest boxoffice draws with stars like Mel Gibson, Kurt Russell and Michelle Pfeiffer.

This steamy good guy-bad guy-adventure is a perfect testation to today's lax morality because it's hard to tell the difference between the good guys and the bad guys and you end-up liking the bad guy and are glad when the good guy looks the other way and can't bring himself to arrest the bad guy.

Gibson, a career dope runner, retired is the gorgeous bad guy one keeps rooting for.

Russell is the boy-hood friend turned into grown narcotics agent who keeps letting Gibson off of the hook.

Pfeiffer takes them both on and has one of the hottest love scenes with Gibson since "Body Heat."

The worst part of this entire tale of misplaced values is that the majority of people will find themselves enjoying "Sunrise," mainly because of its beautiful cast.

It lags here and there, an is sprinkled with a bit of tedium, but for the most part, the corruption is quite entertaining.

— 3 STARS

Sounds and tastes of Christmas

Special holiday table, festive enough for Christmas dinner or holiday party hors d'oeuvres, done in sparkling reds and Christmas greens, trimmed in golden bugles, was prize winner at Westosha BPW's Scholarship Tableselling set by

Crab Quiche

Serve this quiche as an entree for lunch or as an appetizer or first course.

- 1 cup (1/2 pt.) crab salad
- 3 large eggs
- 1 cup half & half
- 2 tsp. Dijon mustard
- 1/4 tsp. seasoned salt, optional
- 1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Monterey Jack cheese
- 2 Tbsp. green onions, in 1/8 in. slices
- 1 Tbsp. red bell pepper, diced, or pimiento
- 1 9-in. ready-to-bake pie shell

Beat eggs in a large bowl. Blend in half & half, mustard and salt. Stir in crab salad, cheese, green onions and red pepper; pour into pie shell. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 45 minutes, or until the center is set. Cool 10 minutes and cut into wedges. Makes 4 main-dish servings or 8 appetizer servings.

Serving suggestion: Arrange cut wedges on a serving plate and garnish with asparagus spears and a tomato rose.

Shrimp Log

Make this festive log in advance and refrigerate it until serving time.

- 2 cups (1 pt.) shrimp salad
- 1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
- 1 cup cheddar cheese, shredded
- 1/4 seasoned salt, optional
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 2 Tbsp. chopped parsley
- Cherry tomato slices, shrimp, and parsley

In a large bowl, mix together shrimp salad, softened cream cheese, cheddar cheese, and seasoned salt until well blended. Shape into a roll about 9 inches long and roll in waxed paper or plastic wrap. Wrap and refrigerate for 2 hours. Combine the pecans and chopped parsley on a separate sheet of waxed paper and roll log in mixture to coat evenly. Wrap and refrigerate until serving time. Serve with assorted crackers. Decorate with cherry tomatoes, shrimp, and parsley, if desired. Makes one 9-in. roll.

Creamy Lobster Spread

This elegant spread can be made in minutes and used in a variety of ways for your next party. You can spoon it into cherry tomatoes or celery to add color to any appetizer platter.

- 2 cups (1 pt.) Lobster Salad
- 1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
- 1/4 tsp. seasoned salt, optional
- Lettuce, celery or radichio leaves, optional
- Crackers or party bread
- Cucumber slices

Gently blend lobster salad, cream cheese and seasoned salt together using a wooden spoon or rubber spatula until blended. Spoon into a serving bowl lined with leaf lettuce or radichio leaves, if desired. Surround with crackers, breads, and cucumber slices. Provide a spreader. Makes 3 cups.

Lobster cucumber appetizers: Spoon a small amount of the Creamy Lobster Spread on cucumber slices and place on crackers. Garnish with tiny cucumber or red pepper triangles or green olive slices. Serve immediately.

Lobster Stuffed Eggs

These delicious stuffed eggs make great appetizers or can be part of a brunch or salad luncheon.

- 2 cups (1 pt.) lobster salad
- 6 large eggs, hard cooked
- Parsley or pimiento
- Lettuce leaves, if desired

Peel and cut eggs in halves. Remove and shred yolks; mix with lobster salad. Rinse and drain cooked white halves. Spoon a heaping tablespoon of filling into each half. Garnish with a small piece of parsley or pimiento. Arrange eggs on a lettuce-lined serving plate. Makes 12.

Duggan hires sculptor to do whales' statue

by GLORIA DAVIS

Timothy Duggan, auctioneer from Lake Zurich, was so enthralled with the true story of Bonnet, Crossbeak and their companion Bone, the gray whales rescued by the joint American/Soviet effort from the Alaskan ice, that he has commissioned chainsaw sculptor Jerry Faber, Minnesota, to carve a statue of the three whales.

And, inspired by one of the first monumental pieces of cooperation between the two countries, Duggan plans to give the statue to the Russian people of Vladivostok, home of the Soviet ice breakers that aided the mammals.

But making these plans operational means overcoming four obstacles.

The first, finding the right tree has already been surmounted. A huge elm tree offered by the U. S. Forestry Dept., now located on the Indian Reservation in the Chippewa Forest, will produce the wood for the statue.

The big trick here is to remove the tree without damaging its three large limbs and get it into the artist's studio. The highway and utility departments in the area have come to the rescue by tentatively offering the use of their men and equipment.

Timothy Duggan

Faber, looking forward to the challenge of creating the three whales out of one tree, says that it will be a labor of love.

In addition, Faber will be donating his entire fee to the save-the-whales group, to spur citizens to send money to aid in paying for the project.

Duggan feels that this will make the gift one from the American people and not just a gift from himself and Faber.

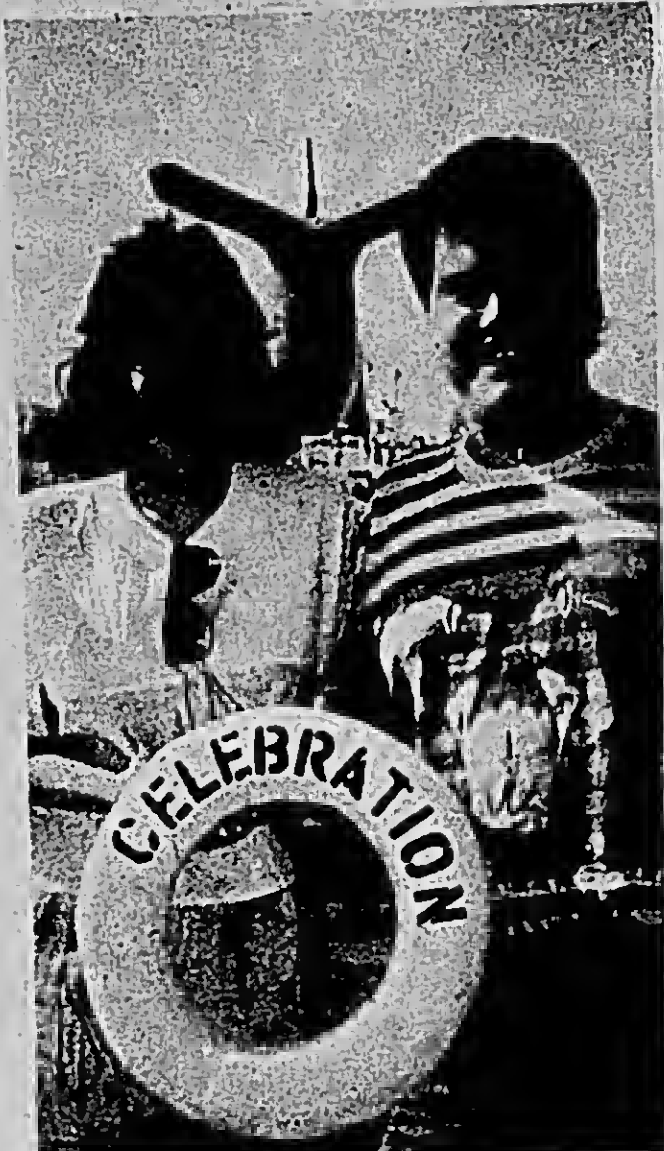

Getting to number 3, Faber and Duggan, are hoping that Russia accepts the gift.

Duggan is urging the American people to start deluging the Soviet Union with letters of thanks for its cooperation in the whale saga, so that it will be hard for Russia to refuse the gift of the statue.

While working on getting the help of some of the United States' biggest industrialist in transporting the finished product across many miles of ocean to Russia, Duggan is waiting for an official response to a letter to Soviet Premier Mikhail Gorbachev, which contains the statue offer.

Thank-you letters to "Our Soviet friends," and-or donations, can be sent in care of Friends of the Whales.

Donations towards the preservation of the other whales in the same area, can be sent in care of Friends of the Whales, POB 815, Lake Zurich.

'Rose' 1-man show

by TOM WITOM

History may not repeat itself, but Jim Post, in a one-man show entitled "Galena Rose", does a pretty good job recreating the past.

His lively tour starts in 1822 and brings use close to the present as he breathes life into some 20 or more different characters who figured in the molding of Galena, Ill., a small town that one had ambitions of rivaling Chicago as the most notable metropolis of the midwest.

The play, written and directed by Post, is subtitled "How Whiskey Won the West". In song, dance and narrative, Post manages to tell an intoxicating story of this roughneck leadmining town tucked at the Iowa-Wisconsin border.

Post's characters range from deceitful gamblers and drunks to the deceived Indians, and are guaranteed to bring on a mixture of laughter and tears.

Not just for history buffs, "Galena Rose" is a fine show for anyone who appreciates a good yard. It is being staged at the Civic Studio Theater, 20 N. Wacker Dr., Chicago, through January.

The Alaska Marine Highway

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Alaska, being twice the size of Texas, has a problem. It has only one highway. And that road doesn't even reach half of the state's largest cities!

What Alaska does have, though, is more coastline than the rest of the United States combined. So, in 1960, the people of this state voted the establishment of a waterborne highway system.

Starting with just one ship operating from Skagway to Prince Rupert, B.C., the system has grown to nine ships and extends all the way to Seattle. Areas serviced include the Kenai Peninsula, Kodiak Island, Juneau, Ketchikan, Sitka, Hoonah and Wrangell.

The fleet of the Alaska Marine Highway consists of a variety of sizes of ships. They all carry both passengers and motor vehicles. Five have staterooms, while four do not. Most staterooms have shower and toilet, but one ship offer cabins with or without facilities. While all have food service and cocktail lounges. Passengers are responsible for handling their own luggage, which must be stored either in your car and trailer, or in coin-operated storage lockers.

While these ships are quite comfortable, remember that this is a public transportation system—not a cruise line. Don't expect cruise ship amenities.

You can access this system at the Seattle terminal at Pier 48, near the Washington state ferry. Access to the Alaska highway is at Haines via the 159-mile Haines Highway.

During your voyage, maybe you'll be lucky enough to see a Kodiak brown bear, which can reach a weight of 1,200 pounds. You could visit Seldovia, a fishing and logging community founded by the Russians. You must visit Juneau, the capital city of Alaska, surrounded by towering mountains and glaciers, it is only reachable by air or sea.

One last tip. Unlike the cruise lines, the marine highway operates all year long. Traveling off-season from October 1 to April 30, you'll find fewer crowds, much more beautiful scenery and save money!

Dancin' Machine I to spin at Expo

by GLORIA DAVIS

When Debbie's Floral of Mundelein and Lakeland Newspapers present their Fifth Annual Wedding Expo on Wednesday, Jan. 4, at the Mundelein Holiday Inn, the Dancin' Machine I will be a major exhibitor.

Over 10 years ago, Brian Forbes, who was working in management at Great America, started the Dancin' Machine I (not to be confused with Dancin' Machine II) on a part time basis.

He had played around with being a deejay in a studio and found he didn't like it, but when he started working in front of the public at parties, spinning tunes and adding a little personal entertainment, he decided that this was where it was at.

Now 10 years later, there are 16 full time deejays and four part-timers that allow Dancin' Machine I to handle up to 10 events in one evening.

"Two people handle each engagement and we do it entertainingly, we're not just gear-heads that show up with lots of equipment and just spin discs," says Forbes.

The Dancin' Machine's wedding package, which includes dining and cocktail music, as well as tunes to dance by, is the number one draw.

The Fantasia Bridal show will be the main event of the evening, presented by Claudine's of Libertyville-Bridal Gallery and Boutique, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the reception hall on the main stage.

Among the wedding experts that will be there for consultation, besides Claudine's, Debbie's, and the Dancin' Machine, will be travel agents, video productions, limousine rentals, printers, banquet facilities, cleaners, photographers and many more.

Complimentary champagne and hors d'oeuvres will be served from 6 to 7 p.m. and pieces of wedding cake will be handed out at 8:30 p.m., at intermission.

Show tickets cost $2.50. For more information and reservations, call (312) 949-4454.

CLC sells cookbooks

Everyone can take care of those on their gift list while contributing to a worthy cause by purchasing "Twenty Years and Still Cooking," a College of Lake County cook book commemorating the school's 20th anniversary.

Just For Seniors

Suggestions for people with arthritis:

1. Keep rested and well-nourished.
2. Don't become overweight.
3. Learn to relax. Rest during pain flare-ups or when tired.
4. Don't let wrists droop over a chair when sitting. This puts stress on wrist joints.
5. Don't sleep with pillows under knees. Use strongest, not weakest joints. Carry purse over shoulder, not holding strap in hand.

Thank You

THANK YOU DEAR FRIENDS - Of ours and Tom's, for the comfort and love you gave us through your many gifts of Masses, flowers, cards, visits and donations to the ALS Foundation in Memory of our Loving Son, Tom. We will always be grateful for every kindness and caring deed you gave to Tom during his long struggle.

You dear people of Grayslake, friends, merchants, The Helping Hands of St. Gilbert's, The College of Lake County and their caring staff, The Grayslake High School past buddies and teachers who always kept in touch, the ever helpful and caring Library folks, the Police and Fire Departments who keep watch... all of you made the difference in Tom's life, being the blessings that helped to keep Tom going cheerfully on his eleven year journey.

A special word of praise and gratitude for the gentle care given to Tom by our Grayslake Rescue Team and the Tek Ambulance Team.

Our Loving Thanks to All... from Tom's family.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME
Weekly Tip: Energy will be high.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Select quality over quantity. Press boldly forward in your profession. Success and prosperity are at your fingertips. Work on holiday party plans.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Others around you may not feel the same as you do today; so be gentle and understanding. A dramatic incident is an eye opener. Focus on change.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Happiness is breaking out from within you, making your home contented and cheerful. Put social plans into effect. Sign up for volunteer work now.

Cancer (June 21-July 20) You can't stuff happiness into someone who isn't receptive. Be a good listener. Back off from a relational problem, and take care of your own needs.

Leo (Jul 21-Aug. 22) You change in wrong condition at the workplace. Cultivate an attitude of friendship toward everybody. You have the right answers, so stick with them.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) There is a harmonious vibration between you and another. Take the first step toward forming a relationship. Fear has no place in your life now.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) You have a winning smile. Others are attracted to you. Relational choices will have to be made. Rewards come from what you say and do today. Be sharp.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) You are free to move about socially. Watch for a hidden investment that may surface in your favor. Avoid procrastination, and finish your workload.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Allowing yourself to be pulled off course is too distracting. Concentrate on family. Make better use of your time. Don't become overly involved.

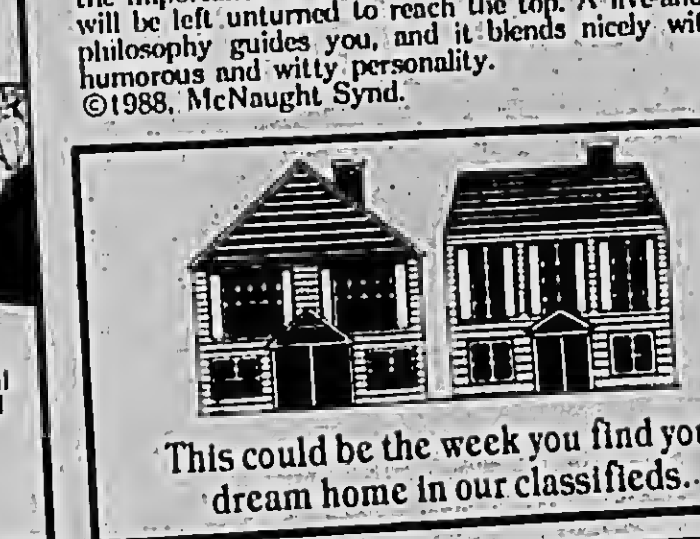

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You manage to keep your head about you while others lose theirs. Your steadfast attitude can stabilize a nagging family matter. Be kind to children.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Pay attention to intuitive ideas which focus on material gain and homelife. Your good thoughts have power. Take charge and mediate conflicts.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Someone is deeply attracted to your affectionate ways. Stay with recreational health plans for a sense of well being. Creative energy is high now.

If you were born this week, you're still developing your creative self, yet you're independent and self-reliant. Once the importance of a goal becomes clear to you, no stone will be left unturned to reach the top. A live-and-let-live philosophy guides you, and it blends nicely with your humorous and witty personality.

LAKELAND CLASSIFIEDS - A great place to find your dream house!

DOMINION

The Dominion is a home to help master graceful and elegant entertaining, or a private life with all the luxurious touches, with much of the effort removed through design work that pays careful attention to details. A broad front entry guards the entrance to a sunken living room with a full wall of windows. A step up beyond it, but open to it for large scale entertaining, is a formal dining area. It is served by a kitchen where two or more can work together comfortably at its long counters, built in desk area, or island counter with cook top. A sunny breakfast nook offers a pleasant spot for informal meals, with a view of a deck that extends from the garage to the master bedroom, echoing all the angles of the house along the way. Sliding doors to that deck open from the family room. There is a built in bar here. A wood box filled directly from the outside keeps the fuel readily available for fireplaces in the den and family room.

The den offers a quiet retreat for the homeowner. Although it could be used as a guest room or private study, the french doors between the den and master suite make it an ideal sitting room. The master bedroom itself is a luxurious retreat. There is a large walk-in closet, dressing area and vanity, optional sauna, and then a full bath beyond, with a sunken tub that looks out to a private garden.

A second full bath with double vanities is available for guests and for the two bedrooms facing the front of the house. There are several large storage closets along the hallway.

A three car garage has a place for everything, with storage area between it and the house for the heating system, a half bath/mud room, and a large utility next to the kitchen that even allows amply space for sewing and hobbies.

For a study plan of the Dominion (108-54), send $5 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2832 CN, Eugene, OR. 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.
